VOL. XLV CARLISLE, NICHOLAS COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1910 EIGHT PAGES-NO 44

THIS IS A DEMOCRATIC LEAD

Do You Feel Like Having a Part IN THE Great Victory?

IF SO

T. H. PAYNTER,
United States Senator from Kentucky.

Hon W. J. Fields, Democratic Nominee for Congress, the part of his making which is the most to us, in fact that he has never known failure

When I received the Democratic nomination for Congress, I fully intended to make such a campaign of the district that I would be able to meet practically all of the voters, and personally solicit their support. Soon after the convention I commenced the campaign, but early in September I was stricken with fever, and most six weeks. I have now fully recovered, but the time is so short from now until the election that I will not have time to make the pleasure and privilege of seeing all the voters of the district. Please take my wish to do so for the act.

I am receiving very encouraging reports from all parts of the district, as to the outlook for victory, and I have no doubt, if the property energy is not forfeited, that we can carry any election that we have any every effort to get my entire vote to the polls on Nov. 8th.
I promise, if elected, to devote my entire time, energy and ability to the duties of the office.
Yours very truly,
W. J. FIELDS.

What a Former State Senator of Ky. Has to Say Of W. J.
Fields, Democratic Nominee for Congress.

To those of the Ninth Congressional District who are not personally acquainted with our Democratic nominee, W. J. Fields, I wish to briefly speak in his behalf, and in his congratulation, as one who has known him for many years.

He is a born orator and a person of lofty, pure but honest character, and his record from the days of Fields to the voters of the Ninth Congressional District, to one to which his friends and supporters point, to which his political enemies pay their utmost respects. All his life he has distinguished himself by his high character of aspirations and high ideals, and though his efforts to accomplish his cherished ambitions have been in the face of adversity, and his friends with him, they have also been crowned with new and higher ideals.

As a business man, his life has been a splendid success; and

Make Mark Like This:

Judge John M. Lassing, Democratic Nominee

Both Parties have made nominations for Judge of the Court of Appeals and it therefore becomes the duty of Democrats to support their nominee, Judge John M. Lassing.

Judge Lassing is now serving on the Appellate Bench, and he is making a capable and an able Judge, and there is no reason on earth why he should not be re-elected by a handsome majority.

He has not taken the stump because he feels that that would not be the proper thing, but he is doing his duty in court with the idea that that is the best way to "sell" his name.

There is little fear of his being defeated by the assaulting force of Democrats to do so turn out NEXT TUES-DAY, NOVEMBER 8th, and vote the Straight Democratic ticket.

The Republicans will all be there you can depend, why not all the Democrats?
This is a Democratic year for sure and Old Kentucky should be on the fighting line for 1912.

WHAT DO YOU SAY?

Small Farm For Sale

On account of my health I have to sell my farm of 100 acres, with a good house, barn, and other improvements. The farm is well watered and is in a good location. It is a good opportunity for anyone who wants to start a small farm.
