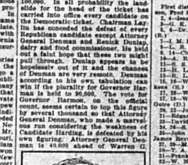
NEW YORK

New York City—John A. Dix of Washington county, the democratic candidate for governor, will be the next governor of New York, he has been elected by a plurality which, when all the returns are in, will probably reach 65,000. With a falling off in the Republican vote, estimated at 22 per cent, above the Democratic and 12 per cent. in New York City and a falling off of 8 per cent. in the Democratic vote, Dix's plurality is over 65,000 more than that obtained by Governor Hughes in 1908. Lieutenant Governor Glynn's majority in the first, the Fifth, of Nassau county, was carried by Dix by a plurality of 61.



JOHN A. DIX.

Although he ran ahead of his ticket, Dix considerably fell short of the 100,000 he expected to carry his associates through with him. His plurality in New York City alone is estimated at about 100,000 divided as follows: Manhattan and the Bronx, of which he carried: Manhattan and the Bronx 72,000; Richmond 2,000; Queens 12,000; Richmond 2,000.

Dix's plurality in Kings county runs down to the figures with anything like a normal gubernatorial vote. Democratic majorities have been piled up in Kings county two years ago brought the New York governor a plurality of over 129,000. Gilmore's plurality north of the Bronx is estimated at about 25,000.

The Republicans lost three congressmen in New York City and for a while it was thought that Congressman Harrison would be defeated. Returns from the Twenty-first district, however, show he defeated in the Thirteenth district, Congressman Cassidy, Democrat, in Bronx, Henry George, Democratic and Independence league candidate for the Seventeenth district, beat William S. Bennet 2,000.

Iowa.

Des Moines.—In the election in Iowa, the Democratic congressmen were elected in districts held by Republicans and the Republican hold on the district from the Democrats. Otherwise the delegation remains unchanged, save that the Republican majority of other than 1892. There may be 20 of 24 against four in the last legislature. Representative Charles F. Scott, Democrat, of the Fifth district, and Representative Charles E. Pickett, Democrat, of the Seventh district, are the only congressmen who have been elected.

JOHN K. TENER.

Senator Ellis accompanied by Dr. Gordon and his family left for the Elkins home in Washington. It was reported that Senator Elkins would go to Italy for a surgical operation.

Victor N. Metcalf, Jr., 27 years old, eldest son of the former secretary of the navy and Democratic congressman, died in Colorado Springs, Col., as the result of an attack of pneumonia.

Henry Rowe, a shoe manufacturer located in New York, was shot and mortally wounded in the hallway of a burglar in his apartments.

Dr. Henry Wurtz, a prominent physician, is the discoverer of the existence of gold in sea water, died at his home in Brooklyn at the age of eighty-three years.

Dr. A. Marshall Elliott, professor of literature in the Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore, is dead, aged sixty-four years. Senor Elliot was decorated in 1907 with the cross of the French Legion of Honor in recognition of his literary work.

In his annual address to the woman suffragists H. B. Hutchins, president of the University of Chicago, urged them to elect "ladies that would fit into the homemaking and to abandon ideas of "careers."

Edward T. Rosenheimer, a wealthy manufacturer of Ne. York city, was committed on a charge of killing Miss Grace Hough by running down in her automobile a dog, to which she was riding August 16.

W. S. Fant, a Republican leader of eastern Kentucky, was killed at Flemingsburg Ky., while on his way to fill a speaking date.

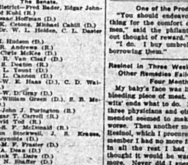
OHIO

Columbus—Governor Harmon will be reelected governor of Ohio by a plurality of approximately 90,000. It may run as high as 100,000. Up to midnight in all probability the landslide for Harmon will be the largest ever given a candidate for governor in the Democratic ticket. Chairman Hoadley of the Democratic state committee and Republican candidate except Attorney General Denman and Henrich Dunlap, dairy and food commissioner. He held out a false hope that these men would pull through. Dunlap appears to be defeated by 1,000 and the attorney general by 2,000. Many counties have not been heard from and the official count will not be completed for several days. The vote on the state ticket will be used in crossing the Kentucky River.



Gov. Judson Harmon.

Harding will carry Hamilton county, Cincinnati, Franklin and Lucas, in the city of Toledo, by pluralities that will be overcome by the vote in the precinct about of Harding. The state has gone Democratic by more than that he can survive a Harmon plurality of 90,000.

Control of the next general assembly will be retained by the Democrats by a majority of about 20 on joint ballot, according to the probable makeup of next assembly:
