Reminiscenses.

By W. C. Rogers.

I think it was either that State's Land Investment or about a locust in Lexington and all at Sorrel's at a look. Horse table. Hunter's seeing and was unnecessary. Mr. Ewing called by. He was Superintendent of Religious Education by Chas. Scott at Mr. Shelby's faith. I, sold it.

I recall a story I have not to Bunker Hill, a man who made a fortune failure to [illegible]. He said in part: "Once I was the poor inmate of [illegible] tobacco, our debtors [illegible] the sheriff came into the house to [illegible] father, and I have seen the production of the comfort [illegible] with Col. Cassette.

Chas. now and then, with the journey, being [illegible] would work out of the house and minute in the [illegible] the hospital, and [illegible] gathered to see and be heard. [illegible] Barnes was [illegible] Barnes was [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]