THIS IS A DEMOCRATIC YEAR

Do You Feel Like Having a Part IN THE Great Victory? IF SO

Hon. W. J. Fields, Democratic Nominee for Congress.
To the Voters of the Ninth Congressional District of Ky.
When I received the Democratic nomination for Congress, I felt it my duty to make such a canvass of the district that I would be able to report practically all of the voters, and personally select their representatives to the convention I commenced the canvass, but early in September I was stricken with fever, and was confined to my room for all of the winter. I have now fully recovered, but the time is so short from now until the election that I will not have time to have the pleasure and privilege of seeing all the voters of the district. Please take my wish to do so for the act.
I am receiving very encouraging reports from all parts of the district, and in the outlook for victory, and I have no doubt, if the property energy is not forthcoming, that I will not have time to have the pleasure and privilege of seeing all the voters of the district. Please take my wish to do so for the act.
I am receiving very encouraging reports from all parts of the district, and in the outlook for victory, and I have no doubt, if the property energy is not forthcoming, that I will not have time to have the pleasure and privilege of seeing all the voters of the district. Please take my wish to do so for the act.

Make Mark Like This:
The Republicans will all be there you can depend, why not all the Democrats? This is a Democratic year for sure and Old Kentucky should be on the fighting line for 1912!
WHAT DO YOU SAY?
Tuesday November 8th

BEN JOHNSON, Congressman from Fourth District of Kentucky.
HARVEY HILL, Congressman from Fifth District of Kentucky.
CAMPBELL CARROLL, Congressman from Sixth District of Kentucky.
