

Reminiscences.

By Elder W. S. Rogers.

My father, Samuel Rogers, was a well-to-do man. He was born in 1818 and died in 1892. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and a prominent citizen of his community. He was a man of great integrity and high character. He was a man who was respected and loved by all who knew him.

He was a man who was very kind and generous. He was a man who was very brave and courageous. He was a man who was very wise and thoughtful. He was a man who was very loyal and devoted.

He was a man who was very hardworking and industrious. He was a man who was very frugal and economical. He was a man who was very patient and understanding.

He was a man who was very honest and straightforward. He was a man who was very kind and loving. He was a man who was very brave and courageous.
