CARLISLE MERCURY
G. R. KELLER & SON, Pubs.
CARLISLE, KENTUCKY

IMPORTANT NEWS NOTES OF A WEEK

LATEST HAPPENINGS THE WORLD OVER TOLD IN ITEMIZED FORM.

EVENTS HERE AND THERE

Condensed Into a Few Lines for the Perusal of the Busy Man—Latest Personal Information.

Washington

A new weapon is being forged out of the government's experience in dealing with monopolies of trade and combinations of capital, which it was learned Attorney General Wickersham hopes to present to congress in the belief that it will be incorporated into law.

* * *

A fat denial was made of the report from Springfield, Ill., that the president had joined with Senator Aldrich in urging the election of William Lorimer to the United States senate. Edward Hines, the millionaire lumberman of Chicago, testified that Senator Aldrich had told him he thought Taft was anxious to have Lorimer elected.

* * *

Postmaster General Hitchcock designated 46 additional post offices as postal savings depositories in as many states and territories, mostly at industrial centers where there are many wage earners. Mr. Hitchcock plans to confine the offices as nearly as possible to industrial centers really needing such banking facilities.

* * *

Domestic

The campaign of the department of justice to end "bucket-shopping" in the large cities may end in failure as the result of a decision rendered by Justice Wright in the district supreme court. "Bucket-shopping" is a lawful occupation according to Justice Wright, who holds that the commitment to the code defining the practice is unconstitutional because it deprives citizens of the liberty to contract guaranteed them by the Constitution.

* * *

Thirty-two conductors, brakemen and porters, many of them long in the service, have just been discharged from the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway. The federal grand jury, which convenes in April at Kansas City, will be asked to investigate the collection of fares by some of these men.

* * *

A crisis in the dispute between the Illinois Central railroad and the big shopcrafters employed on the entire system from Chicago to New Orleans is at hand. By a referendum vote the men decided overwhelmingly in favor of a strike, unless the road grants an increase in wages of 25 per cent.

* * *

After a discussion lasting all day the Wisconsin senate passed a bill providing for a uniform system of compensation for bodily injuries to the victims of industrial accidents.

* * *

Official cognizance of the barbers' shirt was taken in the New Jersey legislature when a bill was introduced and discussed in the assembly making it a "high misdemeanor" and fixing as a punishment life imprisonment for a woman to wear that style of dress.

* * *

A $500,000 fire practically wiped out the business section of Pollock, La. Twenty-eight buildings, including two hotels, several stores and residences, were destroyed. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

* * *

Following the refusal of Herman H. Kohlsaat, publisher of the Chicago Record-Herald, to divulge the source of his information that a fund of $100,000 was raised to aid in the election of Senator Lorimer, the committee investigating bribery at Springfield, Ill., perfected plans for arraigning Mr. Kohlsaat before the bar of the senate.

* * *

Joseph Hanno, an Italian policeman, was shot and killed when he was patrolling his beat in the Italian district at Kansas City, Mo.

* * *

Approximately 10,000,000 loco was vanished by the peach growing industry in the United States east of the Rocky mountains last season from brown rot, scab and curculio, a small beetle, according to a department of agriculture bulletin.

* * *

After a terrific struggle with two police officers, Dickinson MacAllister, former president of the Metropolitan Elevated Railway company, was removed from a Panhandle train at Pittsburg. He became violently insane and tried to kill himself.

* * *

The fire which destroyed a large part of the New York state capitol at Albany caused irreparable loss to the raising of the historical records in the library. Most of these cannot be replaced. The property damage to the capitol itself was $1,000,000.

* * *

Rabies has become so widely epidemic in northern New Jersey that a quarantine of dogs throughout the state for a year is the only way in which the disease can be stamped out, in the opinion of Dr. W. W. Curry, state veterinary surgeon.

* * *

The two-cent passenger rate in Oklahoma was declared to be confiscatory and was held invalid by a decision of the United States circuit court of appeals handed down at St. Louis, Mo.

* * *

An interlocutory decree of divorce in favor of Edna Goodrich Goodwin, the actress, from her husband, Nat C. Goodwin, the comedian, was signed by Supreme Court Justice Gisgerich of New York. Miss Goodrich receives permission to be married again, but Mr. Goodwin is denied permission during the lifetime of his former wife.

* * *

The Kings county hospital in Brooklyn has an unenviable patient in pouch fat Ellsworth McDonald, who, although only four years old, is afflicted with a suicidal mania of prodigious type.

* * *

D. P. Hoffin of New York, a student in Cornell university, is charged with electrifying in a warrant issued on the request of a number of merchants Hoffin has been expelled from the university and has disappeared.

* * *

The $12,000,000 bequest to Princeton university of Isaac C. Wyman has been tied up by W. S. Phillips of Grand Junction, Colo., who claims Wyman owed him $101,400. Phillips asked for administration of the estate.

* * *

Proceedings by the department of justice against the Pennsylvania railroad and other railroads and individuals charged with operating a combination to control the bituminous coal output of the United States, in violation of the anti-trust law, are said to be investigated.

* * *

Directors of the Panama-Pacific Exposition company telegraphed to President Taft and Secretary Knox of the interstate commission go to San Francisco and assist in settling the question of a site for the world's fair in 1915.

* * *

Driven to desperation by the haunting visions of the man he had murdered, Achilles Pentarakis, a sculptor, committed suicide in Kansas City police how he killed George Kyriakis, a fellow sculptor, in Chicago, and after dismemberment packed the body with an axe in a trunk. Pentarakis' confession was corroborated by his wife, Angelique, who helped to hide the body.

* * *

More than half of the 500 women students at Cornell university are engaged to be married, according to the large cities may end in failure as the result of a decision rendered by Justice Wright in the district supreme court. "Bucket-shopping" is a lawful occupation according to Justice Wright, who holds that the commitment to the code defining the practice is unconstitutional because it deprives citizens of the liberty to contract guaranteed them by the Constitution.

* * *

Francisco I. Madero, Sr. father of the revolutionist leader, on his arrival at San Antonio, Tex., declared that peace in Mexico is assured within thirty days and probably within ten days. He also said a witness said by Gustavo, he thought, would be the revolutionary representatives in the negotiations.

* * *

Personal

Seven hundred delegates, representing 38 states, attended the opening session at Louisville, Ky., of the twelfth annual meeting of the Retail Lumber Dealers' association of the United States.

* * *

Commander Robert E. Peary was retired as chief of the corps of civil engineers with the rank of rear admiral in accordance with the act of congress passed at the last session. The appointment is to date from April 6, 1909, the day he reached the north pole.

* * *

Sporting

Before one of the largest crowds, if not the largest people, ever gathered to see a boxing contest, Carl Morris of Sapulpa, Okla., knocked out Mike Schreck of Oklahoma City, in the sixth round after giving Schreck one of the severest beatings he ever received in a six-round battle.

* * *

Foreign

It is known that on account of internal political affairs in the long list of letters from Madero, discovered in the archives and several officers of the artillery regiment stationed at Chihuahua, Chihuahua City, and Juarez were arrested and placed in the penitentiary. Many of them will be executed after a court martial.

* * *

After four hours' debate the Nova Scotia legislature informed the federal government that the Canadian Pacific railway cannot have a subsidy for the construction of the Nova Scotia section of the transcontinental road. The vote was 31 to 29.

* * *

A band of 160 bandits is levying tribute on the merchants in the northern Peru Troops have been sent against them.

* * *

Demand for public lands in Panama seems to exist among Americans The report to the United States secretary of war by the United States board of engineers on the Panama canal, with the procedure necessary to obtain public lands in that republic available for settlement.

* * *

Discussing the proposed extension of international arbitration to the German-Hollweg classed universal arbitration and universal disarmament as ideals impossible of realization.

* * *

The Russian holy synod issued an edict prohibiting Jews leasing Christian first names.

* * *

The privy council at Tokio, Japan, ratified the treaty of commerce and navigation with the United States. The statutory exchange will be made on April 4.

* * *

Hotel Frisul, a large establishment belonging to an English company and a fashionable resort for Americans and English guests, in the Alps-Maritimes, was destroyed by fire

CALL CONVENTION FOR GOOD ROADS

Kentucky Wants to Keep Pace With Adjoining States

ONE JUDGE AND TWO MAYORS

It Is Hoped to Form a Permanent Association for Good Roads Agitation With a Bureau of Information for Assistance of Others.

Pineville—County Judge B. A. Peace, E. S. Hellburn mayor of Middlesboro, and N. S. Fairbrother, mayor of Pineville, having decided to organize the Southeastern Kentucky Good Roads association, have called a convention to be held in Pineville on April 19 and 20 in order to perfect a permanent organization. These gentlemen have extended an invitation to officials and citizens of the surrounding counties to be present.

The object of the meeting is to bring the southeastern portion of Kentucky in touch with the remainder of the state and the outside world by the building of good roads.

You are doubtless advised that the governor of Tennessee and the governor of South Carolina are expected to be present, and that prominent men from other states will be present. The purpose of the organization is to secure good information and assistance in the matter of road building. This information is to be furnished on demand to local road associations and will be given upon the organization to assist in forming such associations in any of the counties in this section.

RAISE IN MUHLENBERG.

Greenville—County Judge J. J. Rice has issued an order increasing the salary of county attorney from $1,000 to $1,200. The fiscal court has also increased the salaries of the county assessor and county jailer. This increase to be an unwarranted increase in the salaries of county officials, as the assessment is in excess of that last year.

WINS PATTERSON MEDAL.

J. J. Miller, a son of J. T. Miller of this city, has been awarded the Patterson medal at the Patterson laboratory recently established at Louisville by Mrs. Mary Patterson Harahan. The medal was awarded for the best essay on the subject, "Tuberculosis and Its Prevention." Mrs. Harahan is a daughter of N. J. Rockefeller, Mrs. Rockefeller Prentice Visiting, and T. H. Richardson, Mrs. Rockefeller's brother. Dr. Lewis Hosmer, President Emeritus J. Hopkins university, Baltimore, Md., has made an appropriate address on the occasion.

IN THE PETROLEUM FIELDS.

The Kentucky petroleum fields are showing more activity than we have seen for some time. The usual winter slump seems to be over. The interest of activity is not indicated so much in the number of wells drilled as in the interest in the various districts. Some fields have been practically dead for a year or more rapidly than others, but ever since the Cumberland field began to show up in the eastern district, which included the Ashland district, which included the Ashland district, which included the Ashland