Get Ready for the Big Barbecue.

Arrangements are being completed for the Big Barbecue, but it will not be held as early as was expected. The Campaign Committee will fix the day this week and then things will hum. The management want all who do not give a beef, a lamb, a shoat, or money to come and bring a big basket of cooked food—it will take it all to feed the immense crowd that will be present—and they will furnish burgoo and coffee and plenty of water, and if those thus bringing food want a supply of lamb or beef the management hopes to be able to furnish it.
If everybody will help a little bit there will be no danger of failure. We wish to impress upon all interested that the biggest thing undertaken in this section of Kentucky is on hand now and everybody must help. You will feel so good if you know you helped to make the meeting a success.
