Judge F. V. Coy is a candidate for Representative in this district.

According to the last of the accumulations in the banks in the county, increased to four billions, account of the tax return turky scarcely a dollar of immense sum is kept in this state.

Judge Benton, speaker of the Franklin Circuit Court decided that the Legislature had the right to pass the Kentucky, Midland railroad purchase from Paris to Georgetown. The L. & N. will now get the Midland in the refuge and stake for the section through ours.

We trust Gov. James Breathitt will use his influence to have Senator Blackburn's successor elected by the present Legislature. While this is a matter for the people to have a voice in this election, it is the Legislature. While this is a matter for the people to have a voice in this election, it is the Legislature. While this is a matter for the people to have a voice in this election, it is the
