CARLISLE MERCURY.

G. R. KELLER & SON, Pubs.

CARLISLE, KENTUCKY

HAPPENINGS OF A WEEK

Latest News Told in Briefest and Best Form.

PERSONAL.

The old Brooklyn home of Dr Frederick A. Cook has been sold to a New York real estate speculator and will shortly be torn down to make room for a modern apartment house.

The Imperial Order of Daughters of the Empire in the United States, of which Mrs. James Bryce, wife of the British ambassador, is honorary president, announces plans for the building of a home for aged British men and women in this country.

Though the fact has been kept secret, it is learned on the highest authority that the exercise of Russia by again dangerously ill all seem fates being put off on that account.

Members of the National Civic Federation from thirty-four states met in New York to discuss compensation for individual accidents, regulation of corporations and industrial arbitration. Honorary, Marshall, Root, Carnegie, Cummins and other prominent men were on the list of speakers.

Charles J Hughes, junior United States senator from Colorado, died at the home of his father, after a long illness. Death was due to a general breakdown.

Benjamin H. Cramp, a former member of the Cramp Shipbuilding company, died at a hospital in Philadelphia of pneumonia. Relatives say he was found in the bathroom of his residence with the gas turned on.

Cornell university at Ithaca, N. Y. celebrated a holiday in commemoration of the 104th anniversary of the birth of Ezra Cornell. The founders day program included an address by President Schurman on the "Life of Goldwin Smith."

Judge John D. Works, progressive Republican, was elected United States senator by the California legislature to succeed Senator Frank T. Flint, present incumbent.

Former Governor George F. McLean was the choice of the Republican caucus of the members of the Connecticut general assembly for the United States senate, defeating the present senator, Morgan G. Bulkeley

GENERAL NEWS.

President Taft, in an address at the banquet of the National Tariff Commission association at Washington repeatedly declared the Lorimer bill characterizing it "as a conciliatory measure embodying all the important features that are necessary to make the tariff commission effective." He had previously announced to Republican members of the ways and means committee in the White House and urged them to harmonize their differences.

The gift of $100,000 to the "Mother" Church of Christ, Scientific, devised in the will of Mrs. Mary G. Baker Eddy, has been paid and sold and the estate may go to her sons. The residuary clause in the will is not legal. In the opinion of ex United States Senator William E. Chandler. Hannis Taylor, the professor of constitutional law at George Washington university, and others.

In an address before the annual meeting of the National Civic federation at New York city, Samuel Untermyer attacked the government's attitude toward the trusts as a "demagogue sham." According to him the large and "notorious" corporations are unmolested while "the little fellows" live being pursued with a brass band and the prominent press horses are put in action."

Another serious battle between the Mexican revolutionists and the federal forces has been fought just across the border and the dead are estimated at more than forty, according to advices received at San Antonio, Tex.

Alarm is felt by railroad officials for the safety of the fifty passengers and crew of Great Northern passenger train No 3. The Oregonian and the crew of fast mail No 27, stalled in the snow near Fielding, Mont.

Five persons were killed and twelve injured in a gas explosion that wrecked a well-filled five and ten cent store at Connellsville, Pa. Fire followed completely destroy the building. Clerks and customers were buried in the collapse of the walls.

Jack Gotch champion heavyweight wrestler of the world, was married to Miss Gladys Gwartzyk, in Honolulu. Is at the home of the bride.

J. S. Spalding, ninety years old an early friend of Mark Twain, committed suicide in an undertaking establishment at Butte Montana.

The house of representatives passed the Sullivan immigration bill by a vote of 215 to 67 Tuesday. The measure was a reenactment from $12 to $18 a month to all soldiers who served 90 days in the United States army in the civil war or 60 days in the Mexican war and who are 62 years old.

Seventeen men, comprising the captains and crews of the coal barges Corbin, Pine Forest and Trevorton, in tow of the tug Lykens, were drowned off Highland Light, Mass. as two life saving crews stood on the sands powerless to launch a boat or reach the surface with a life line

John Michele, a young cooper, is dead in a Brooklyn hospital because he was suddenly deprived of cigarettes for two days after he had been addicted to their use for fifteen years He had been in the habit of smoking 30 a day, he said

The recent tidings from Wellesley college that half of the young women students there are deficient in spelling has aroused a sympathetic response from Andrew Carnegie, and in an open letter he expresses his congratulations to bad spellers on their independence.

Prof E J Homer of the University of Kansas says the solution of the gynecological problem is to dub the alfalfa fields to the spring. Just after the frost has left the ground. Then he says, kills the eggs of the hoppers

The Union Pacific Railroad company has equipped its passenger trains on the Utah division with an armed guard in preparation for attempted robbery, following the hold up of the Overland Limited last week

Bubonic plague has caused 600 deaths in Harbin, Manchuria, while fifteen days, according to consular reports received by the state department at Washington.

Senator David W Holaday was dropped from the Illinois senate by Republican Governor Oglesby, acting on a communication from Governor Deneen. The communication and the ruling of the chair that the folks back home no longer is master of the senator forestalled the report of the committee investigating the reports of bribery in connection with Senator Lorimer's election.

The most powerful argument ever submitted to the United States senate against the extension of slavery by a direct vote of the people is found in the report recently made public on behalf of the judiciary committee of the senate by Senator Borah on the resolution providing for the submission of a constitutional amendment to the various states.

Leonidas Dyatlovitz of Boston, appearing for the shippers against the railroads in the Eastern part of the country, told the interstate commerce commission at Washington that if the railroads would stop their wasteful methods they would save $181,000,000 a year, and would not need to advance their freight rates, as they ask, but rather could return only $12,000,000 a year.

The New York State Jersey Cattle Breeders' association will give four cans of cream of better butter fat to the four boys who attend the next state fair and write the best descriptive essays on their visits.

Gertrude Bastin, a well-to-do German merchant, leading the "good night" dance with his daughter at her coming out party in New York, sank to the floor and died.

A bill limiting a tip to a waiter to 25 cents was introduced in the New Jersey legislature. Messenger boys' and bellboys' gratuities are to be limited to 10 cents.

A fire which will probably exceed $1,000,000 in the value of the property damaged totally destroyed the central number of Commerce building.

In a scathing review of the testimony taken by the senate committee on privileges and elections in the case of William Lorimer of Illinois, who is charged with having obtained his seat in the United States senate by corrupt means, Senator Crawford of South Dakota pledged himself to vote to unseat Lorimer on the ground that his election was illegal and void.

United States Senator Stephenson is charged with a number of violations of the corrupt laws of Wisconsin in the lately statement filed with Governor McGovern by the senate and house committee in its report on the investigation of the primary election held in the state on the 5th of September. The committee recommends that a copy of the report be forwarded to the next legislature of the state with the request that the senate and that body investigate the charges.

Hubert Latham, the young French aviator who remained in the air 42 minutes from Calais to Dover, in a flight on the 19th of July, 1909, has been killed in a fall from a height of 1,000 feet at Mourmelon-le-Grand, France. Latham was flying at the time of the accident.

Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder and head of the Christian Science church, died at her home in Chestnut Hills, Mass. Mrs. Eddy was born in Bow, N. H., July 16, 1821. She was married to Dr. George Washington Glover in 1843, and after his death in 1844 married Mr. Asa Gilbert Eddy. Mr. Eddy died in 1882. Mrs. Eddy founded the Christian Science church in 1879.

Mrs. Eddy's will, which was filed for probate in Concord, N. H., Wednesday, disposes of an estate valued at $2,000,000. The bulk of the estate is left to the Mother church of Christian Science in Boston, Mass., and to the Massachusetts Metaphysical college, which Mrs. Eddy founded. Her son, George Glover, is left $25,000 and the income from a trust fund of $100,000. Her grandson, Ebenezer J. Foster Eddy, receives $25,000 and the income from a trust fund of $100,000. Her adopted son, Foster Eddy, receives $25,000 and the income from a trust fund of $100,000. Her daughter-in-law, Ellen M. Glover, receives $25,000. Her granddaughter, Mary Baker Glover, receives $25,000. Her granddaughter, Mary Baker Glover, receives $25,000. Her granddaughter, Mary Baker