W. M. & M. Co. Put in Hands of Receiver

On Saturday last Judge Fryer upon the petition of E. T. Beeding, President of the Washington Mining and Manufacturing Company and the Park's Hill Mercantile Company, placed those two concerns in the hands of Receivers. Messrs W. B. and C. C. Ratliff were agreed upon by parties most interested to take over and manage the business for the benefit of the creditors, and these two well known and successful business men are now in full charge of the business which is being continued as usual—filling all contracts and ready to fill any new orders.

As no inventory has yet been filed we are unable to give an exact statement of the liabilities and assets but they are something like $75,000 each, though it is but reasonable to estimate that the assets will not be as large as at first reported, yet in this case the stock of goods and real estate, merchandise, etc., should be made to realize a goodly sum. Probably the heaviest loser by the trouble is the Carlisle Deposit Bank, but even its loss will not be so serious as to materially effect the old reliable institution. The State Bank Examiner was here last week and made a thorough examination of this Bank, and while his report has not yet been made it is sure it will not be of such a character as to cause any alarm. The W. M. & M. Co. has been making a hard fight for several years and its managers had hopes of making it a paying institution. We trust the Receivers will be able to get it on its feet again, as its permanent closing would be a real calamity to the Parks Ferry section as well as the entire County.

One unfortunate thing about such misfortunes as the above is the wild reports circulated about everybody concerned, and the damage likely to be done innocent parties. It is true it is a great misfortune when such an institution becomes involved and cannot meet its obligations but such things will happen and there pass out of mind while the world moves on. The most that can be said about the Deposit Bank's connection with the affair is that it stood by the Company faithfully, doing its best to right things, but probably too long for the Bank's own good. However, we assure our readers that the Bank will not be materially affected by its temporary loss.

The Season at Torrent

Our former fellow Carlislian W. W. Howe has rented the Torrent for the season of 1911, and Mrs. Howe writes to the Kelley family casually says that "the whole house has been painted white and looks pretty," the premises are clean and charming, and the season promises to be one of the greatest ever. On the 15th, 16th and 17th inst. the State association's convention will meet there, on the 23rd the opening ball and the State Medical meeting on the 28th and 29th, and a book full of engagements. If you want a restful week or so in the mountains at Torrent don't fail to get it if you will go to Torrent.

The R. C. King Medicine Co. sell Bourbon Dog Cholera Remedies. It prevents and cures them. 75 to 100 per cent of suffering Dogs cure. J8-3t

Mr. W. H. Graham of Frankfort Ky.

Writes letter which may be of great interest to him sufferers of this city.

Gentlemen:—I have used your Cuticura Remedies for a skin disease from which I suffered for about two years. I had tried many remedies and doctors, but found no relief. I was induced to try the Cuticura Remedies, and after using them for a short time I found relief. I continued their use for about three months, when I was entirely cured. I have had no return of the disease since. I am glad to recommend your Remedies to any one suffering from a skin disease. Yours truly, W. H. GRAHAM, 1 Mar. 1, 1910.

So many conflicting statements, similar to the above, have been made to us privately by sufferers from aggravated skin diseases to whom we have said the C. R. P. Co. Proposition, that we feel bound to give it our unqualified endorsement.

The quail crop is reported to be very large this year. This will certainly be good news for our mighty hunters. As the law does not allow the giving away of this toothsome bird, our chances are very slim to enjoy a feast but let them be the old standbys, blackberries and rabbits.

AN ORDINANCE

PRESCRIBING BUILDING AND FIRE LIMITS

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARLISLE, KY., DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Sec. 1 That it shall be unlawful to erect, construct, add to or remove into the limits hereinafter described, any house or other building unless same shall be built of either brick, stone, iron or concrete, and the roof of which shall be covered with metal or slate or other fire proof substance; and it shall be unlawful for any person to remove any building situated in the limits hereinafter mentioned to any point or location so situated in said limits unless said building shall be constructed of the material hereinbefore mentioned.

Sec. II The limits or district herein referred to shall be known as the Fire Limits or District of the City of Carlisle, Ky., and shall be known and bounded, to wit:

"All that territory lying south of Main street of Carlisle, Ky., and north of Brushy Fork creek in Carlisle, Ky., and more particularly described as follows, to wit: "Beginning at the north margin of Brushy Fork creek at the East of Sycamore street of said city; thence extending eastward with said margin of said creek to the bridge on Water street of said city just in the rear of the Standard Oil Company's lot; thence continuing eastward with and Brushy Fork creek to the bridge crossing same on Dorsey avenue; thence with Dorsey avenue north to Main street of said city; thence westward with Main street of said city to Sycamore street of said city; thence south with Sycamore street to the point of beginning; and containing all the property and grounds within said described boundary."

Sec. III That any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not less than Fifty Dollars nor more than One Hundred Dollars for each offense; and each day, during the continuance of any violation of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed a separate offense.

Sec. IV That any building constructed or moved or removed within the territory or district here-in-before mentioned contrary to the provisions of this ordinance, shall be deemed a nuisance, and shall forthwith be abated.

Sec. V Nothing herein shall be construed so as to prohibit ordinary repairs to buildings now standing or located in said territory. Nor shall a building be constructed of wood and lined with sheet tin or iron be considered an iron building, but same shall be considered a wood building and is prohibited by this ordinance.

This ordinance does not repeal the ordinance requiring permits for the erection of buildings known as No. 44 of the Ordinances of City of Carlisle, Ky.

S. C. VAUGHN City Clerk. J. H. FREY Mayor.

At the regular meeting of the City Council held in Carlisle, Ky., June 5, 1911, the following resolutions were adopted.

RESOLVED, That the thanks of the city of Carlisle be tendered to the Fire Departments of Paris and Millersburg and to the citizens thereof, and to the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company and to W. H. Anderson of Paris, Ky., its Superintendent, for their services rendered at the fire of May 16th, 1911, in Carlisle, Ky., and for their promptness in responding to the call for aid and their efficient work while here. And also to thank the Mayors of Lexington, Flemingsburg and Maysville for their offer of assistance, And,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That these resolutions be published in the city papers and copies sent to the respective cities for publication; and that these resolutions be spread at large upon the minutes of this meeting.

Given under my hand as Mayor of the City of Carlisle this the 6th day of June, 1911.

J. H. FREY, Mayor.
By S. C. VAUGHN, City Clerk.

AN ORDINANCE

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARLISLE DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Sec. I It shall be the duty of the City Marshal to take charge during the day time of all prisoners confined in the county jail under judgment of the Police Court when there is work to do and the weather will permit, and work them on the streets, alleys or other public works of the city of Carlisle.

Sec. II The city jailer shall receive and safely keep therein in close confinement all persons arrested by the said police officers and all persons ordered therein by a judgment of the Carlisle Police Court until discharged by due course of law, except when such persons may be in charge of the City Marshal or other person duly authorized, at work on the streets or public works of the city.

Sec. III In all cases of conviction in the Police Court of Carlisle, the defendant shall stand committed to jail until the fine and costs in such cause shall be paid or replevied; but to exceed, however, one day for each one dollar of fine and costs; and the defendant in such case, if a male, shall be required to work during said period of confinement on the public streets, alleys or on the public works of the city of Carlisle, not exceeding ten (10) hours each day. All such persons required to confine shall also be worked in the same way during the period of imprisonment, and all such persons when in the county jail shall be considered in the custody of the County Jailer, as a city prisoner, however; and when taken out for the purpose of being worked shall be in the custody of the City Marshal. And to prevent escapes, said officer may in his discretion attach a chain and ball of not less than fifty (50) pounds weight to any prisoner.

Sec. IV If any prisoner while on any public work shall behave in a riotous or disorderly manner or refuse to work or to obey the orders of the person having them in charge, or shall attempt to escape, they shall be placed in solitary confinement and fed upon bread and water; or subjected to such slight punishment as may be ordered by the City Marshal; but in no case shall they be cruelly treated. And it shall be the duty of the County Jailer at request of city prisoners to obey the orders of the City Marshal, or the person having charge of the prisoners, when said person shall direct the punishment as above indicated, and to place said prisoner in solitary confinement and to feed him as above indicated, or to inflict such other slight punishment as may be ordered by the City Marshal. And it shall be the duty of the Jailer to follow the instructions as directed by the City Marshal, but he shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Dollar ($1.00) nor more than Three Dollars ($3.00) for each offense and each day shall be deemed a separate offense; and said fine shall be recoverable by a warrant issued by the Carlisle Police Court upon complaint of the City Marshal against [illegible]

In construing the foregoing ordinance, wherever the word "County Jailer" is used, in pertaining to city prisoners, he shall be considered the
