Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2011 with funding from Kentucky Digital Library

Largest Circulation. The Kentucky, therefore is the advertising medium

CARLISLE MERCURY.

New and Up-to-Date Job type faces only can be found in our Job Branch

VOL. XLVI CARLISLE, NICHOLAS COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1911 EIGHT PAGES—NO 2

FRANKS

Bitterly Arraigns Judge O'Rear in Speech at Bowlingville.

OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR NOMINATION

Declares That Republicans Must Stand For Law Enforcement or Meet Political Ruin.

DENOUNCES MOBS AND NIGHT RIDERS

Harbourville, Ky., May 31—Rarely if ever in the history of Kentucky has one candidate for the nomination for Governor of the State so mercilessly arraigned another as E. T. Franks arraigned Judge O'Rear in his opening speech here today after declaring for redistricting, for tax revision, for good roads and better roads, for the enforcement of the county unit law and for advocating the Australian form. Mr. Franks said that the most important issue before the people of the State today is the enforcement of the law, and he declared that unless there are not enough pistol-toters and mob-members in the Republican party to nominate or elect a candidate who does not stand firmly for law and order Mr. Franks' speech has been heard and approved by a record breaking crowd, even in part at Jowa.

When I made my announcement as a candidate for Governor, I stated that I would not make a speaking campaign for the nomination giving as a reason my fear that it would engender bad feeling, and then make it more difficult for me to win the honor, but, not prosperation in utterance fully allowed to be the test of a lawyer, and if Judge O'Rear or any one else thinks that he can speak as well as I do in my own home without getting into a fight, he is welcome to it. I'm a safe reasoning when he tries it. Hence I have remained at my home at Lebo to conduct my campaign for the Republican nomination for Governor, and if I have been misrepresented by any one, or if I have been misrepresented by any one, or if I have been misrepresented by any one, or