THE BIG RALLY THURSDAY
 As the Mercury goes to its thousands of readers Wednesday morning this week, we have opportunity to say something of the arrangements for the big Rally and Barbecue Thursday. Mr. Gus Jaubert is here at work preparing the beees, lambs, shoats and Burgoo, and there will be enough for everybody, and everybody will be served bountifully if it takes all afternoon. Seats have been prepared for six or seven thousand people around the three stands. Six hands will be here to make music, a score of speakers will be on hand and everything is arranged for the biggest day on record in these parts. Everybody come.
