MOVEMENT FOR BETTER ROADS.

Muhlenberg and Other Counties Showing Interest — Organization Effected.

Greenville.—The good roads question in Muhlenberg county and the proposition of better and more roads in the county are the topics of interest in Muhlenberg county now. It seems possible that the county will have heretofore. Interest and there is much talk that much of the money that is now being spent on the roads will have been spent on good roads. The losses of the county's revenue and the money that has been spent on the roads will have been saved. Half miles of macadamized roads will become the model road if the county court will secure the right of way, which is a somewhat dangerous proposition, as it is thought that the matter will have to be brought to settlement in the courts, the fact which would result in there being some fog of model road built at small cost. The to the advantage of legislature enabling the county court to order the street improvement, the cost of the proposed improvement to be borne by the property owners benefited by the improvement. The majority of the streets of the county are now in good condition.

INTERURBAN OFFER.

Mayor Gruber Upon Its Acceptance by Shelbyville.

Shelbyville.—The proposition for the Louisville & Interurban electric road to enter the city was received by Mayor Gruber in a communication made by Attorney Lindsey urged that the city grant the road, as he said he had been authorized to do the concession. He recommended that the condition of the city be submitted to the city. The present annual expenditure of $3,000 for the maintenance of the street, he declared, is equivalent to the amount of money a mod hole. He could see but one plan to pursue, and that was to allow the street from end to end. The estimated cost for this would be about $60,000. Two methods of raising the money are proposed—by issuing a bond issue; a vote of the people which would entail a year's delay, or the other by accepting the $15,000 offered by the L. & I. and $15,000 annually appropriated for repairs and harmonize the remainder, which he said could be secured on the note of the city, and the work begun at once.
