CARLISLE MERCURY
G. R. KELLER & SON, Pubs.
CARLISLE, KENTUCKY

BRIEF NEWS NOTES FOR THE BUSY MAN

MOST IMPORTANT EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK TOLD IN CONDENSED FORM.

ROUND ABOUT THE WORLD

Complete Review of Happenings of Greatest Interest from All Parts of the Globe—Latest Home and Foreign Items.

Washington

The U. S. senate finance committee ordered an adverse report on the House emergency tariff revision bill. It was a strict party vote, the Republican members voting against it and the Democrats for it.

• • •

Miss Julia Lathrop of Chicago has been appointed chief of the recently created children's bureau in the national government, by President Taft. Miss Lathrop is the first woman ever selected to direct a bureau of the federal government.

• • •

Domestic

The first Christian Connecticut Congress, the climax of the men and religion forward movement opened in Carnegie hall, New York, with a long list of notables as speakers and delegates.

• • •

The Cincinnati-Canada Indee with sorrow for a world crept to her place in the North River at New York and discharged to the hospital enlisted men of battleship Connecticut, who rescued the 742 survivors of the steamship Republic before the latter went to the bottom of the Atlantic with 1,834 souls on April 14.

• • •

Senator Smith of Michigan, New York and Nevada and Senator members of the United States senate authorized him to call the first steps in the congressional investigation of the Titanic disaster, are in New York and will subpoena every one on the steamship Carpathia who might throw any light upon the causes of the disaster.

• • •

The conference committee of railway managers at New York absolutely refused to grant the demands of the firemen's branch of Locomotive Engineers for increased pay for members of the order. The reply of the railway managers terminated negotiations. In a strike vote early this month 92.2 per cent of the engineers voted to strike.

• • •

Forty-eight delegates instructed in vote for Theodore Roosevelt in the Republican national convention were elected from Illinois districts. The Taft delegates were elected from the Fifth district, the only one in the state ranked by the president in the preferential primaries.

• • •

Alabama's 24 delegates to the Democratic national convention were instructed to vote for Oscar W. Underwood until a nomination for president was made, by the state convention at Montgomery.

• • •

Four defendants at Argo in the Republican national convention were shot by Sheriff Barrett, who broke up a convention of New Haven, and indicted for conspiracy to intimidate J. President Taft. Ten district delegates were elected, all but four were instructed for Taft.

• • •

Lately in the hotbeds of operation of the Mexican Situation 4. the Pino railroad is held by the Interstate and was known to have caused the collision of the two sections of the Galveston flier at Odessa, Mich., the conductor of the two persons were killed and 22 injured.

• • •

Among the splendor of the Titanic wreck with engaged public interest was the escape of J. Bruce Ismay, the managing director of the line. No information has reached New York as to how or why Mr. Ismay found a place in one of the Titanic's boats.

• • •

The family of Sect. Frederick Dent Grant has not of the trouble public any of the documents for the general's funeral. It is stated at Governor's Island that only Mrs. Grant and her son are ready to make known their wishes but the government will not even allow the details for the military escort.

• • •

A report reached Lima, Ill., that a large number of people near Hico, Illinois, were drowned in the Illinois river when the Illinois Traction company's electric car jumped a drawbridge and plunged into the river.

• • •

The Michigan Central and the Toledo & Ohio Railroad companies are constructing in a new south Bend, Ind., in which Special Examiner Herbert Carriage, Association, 15 rates on coal shipments.

• • •

Upon domestic of a number of members this formation of a new corporation of $100,000,000 might connect with private interests and end in controlling the government. Senator Root of Washington refused to pass a bill incorporating the Rockefeller foundation.

• • •

Two Democratic county conventions were held in Georgia—the first of the nations in the state convention at Peachtree, Ill., Democrats, chosen, one elected by the Harrison-Heated district after it had come to a big fight over the Seventh Regiment armory, the other by the regulars under Roger C. Sullivan.

• • •

Senator Smith of Michigan, New York and Nevada and Senator members of the United States senate authorized him to call the first steps in the congressional investigation of the Titanic disaster, are in New York and will subpoena every one on the steamship Carpathia who might throw any light upon the causes of the disaster.

• • •

The conference committee of railway managers at New York absolutely refused to grant the demands of the firemen's branch of Locomotive Engineers for increased pay for members of the order. The reply of the railway managers terminated negotiations. In a strike vote early this month 92.2 per cent of the engineers voted to strike.

• • •

Forty-eight delegates instructed in vote for Theodore Roosevelt in the Republican national convention were elected from Illinois districts. The Taft delegates were elected from the Fifth district, the only one in the state ranked by the president in the preferential primaries.

• • •

Alabama's 24 delegates to the Democratic national convention were instructed to vote for Oscar W. Underwood until a nomination for president was made, by the state convention at Montgomery.

• • •

Four defendants at Argo in the Republican national convention were shot by Sheriff Barrett, who broke up a convention of New Haven, and indicted for conspiracy to intimidate J. President Taft. Ten district delegates were elected, all but four were instructed for Taft.

• • •

Lately in the hotbeds of operation of the Mexican Situation 4. the Pino railroad is held by the Interstate and was known to have caused the collision of the two sections of the Galveston flier at Odessa, Mich., the conductor of the two persons were killed and 22 injured.

• • •

Among the splendor of the Titanic wreck with engaged public interest was the escape of J. Bruce Ismay, the managing director of the line. No information has reached New York as to how or why Mr. Ismay found a place in one of the Titanic's boats.

• • •

The family of Sect. Frederick Dent Grant has not of the trouble public any of the documents for the general's funeral. It is stated at Governor's Island that only Mrs. Grant and her son are ready to make known their wishes but the government will not even allow the details for the military escort.

• • •

A report reached Lima, Ill., that a large number of people near Hico, Illinois, were drowned in the Illinois river when the Illinois Traction company's electric car jumped a drawbridge and plunged into the river