INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, trenspires per cent, or nearly consequence, this before they reach one aper utility over per cent, or more than one-third, before they are fire, and one-half before they are filteen!

We do not nectical to say that a finally use of clusteris would save a majority of these professul lives. Richard on who heistant to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of marcotle preparations. They, sinctures and southing syrups sold for childrant's complaints contain more or less optime, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly prisons.
