Big Fire Sunday Night

Sunday night last about fifteen minutes ago a fire broke out in the left of the Main Street, and before the fire was under control nearly the entire block was burned.

A list of the property destroyed follows: T. H. Hall's stable, valued at $2,500; insurance $1,000; J. H. Hall's poultry house, valued at $1,000; insurance $500.

A two story frame building belonging to T. H. Hall, and valued at $10,000, was also destroyed. The loss on a blacksmith shop, owned by James O'Neil, is valued at $10,000; insurance $5,000.

James O'Neil's lively stable with four head of horses, and other property, loss $1,000, insurance $500.

Hall Brothers' Grocery, with contents, the building belonging to Frank Huff, loss $2,000, and loss of $1,000 on building, no insurance.

Two properties, one the property of Ed Lawrence, loss $1,000; insurance $500; the other, the property of John F. Hall, loss $1,000; insurance $500.

They walked right in and looked around, and then they went to many prominent members of the community, and they were told that they were not to be disturbed.

The Street Fair is under the supervision of the Catholic Fire Department and the property destroyed by the fire was valued at $10,000.
