Couldn't Walk!

"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Anna Jones, of Kenosha, Ill.

"I could not walk, without holding my sides. My legs trembled and I was unable to stand."

"I was unable to stand. I was unable to stand. I was unable to stand."

"I was unable to stand. I was unable to stand. I was unable to stand."

"I was unable to stand. I was unable to stand. I was unable to stand."
