SYNOPSIS
The story of a woman who, after a long and stormy life, finds peace and happiness in the arms of a man who has loved her through all her trials and tribulations.

CHAPTER IV (Continued)
"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning glance. "I don't know what you mean, but I don't think I should like to go to the hospital. I don't think I should like to go to the hospital. I don't think I should like to go to the hospital."

IMPORTANT FACTS REGARDING PRUNING AND OTHER NECESSARY WORK IN WINEYARD

First Trimming After Planting May Be Done Any Time During Winter When Vines are Dormant and Not Frozen—Varieties Require Different Methods.

By HENRY W. HARRISON
In pruning grapes, many people are at a loss to know where they should cut the vines. It is not until the vines are dormant and not frozen that the work may be done. Varieties require different methods.
