CARLISLE MERCURY

G. R. KELLER & SON, Pubs.

CARLISLE, KENTUCKY

EPITOME OF A WEEK'S NEWS

Most Important Happenings Told in Brief.

Washington

Colonel Roosevelt again declared not only his willingness but his eagerness to make public every scrap of evidence in his possession in regard to any action concerning the campaign funds raised for his use in the presidency in 1912 and the Standard Oil interests.

• • •

Senator Clapp, chairman of the special senate committee now investigating the subject of campaign contributions, said that he and his associates were looking forward to a most strenuous series of hearings when they reassembled in Washington on September 20 to take up the inquiry along the broad lines laid down in the Penrose resolution adopted by the senate.

• • •

Brig.-Gen. Frank McIntyre, the new head of the bureau of insular affairs of the war department, will have as his assistants Maj. Charles G. Gulick, 1st, and Capt. Irving L. Hunt, 25th infantry. Maj. Walcott succeeds Brig.-Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, who has been relieved from duty as chief of the militia bureau.

• • •

A demand for an investigation of the election of Senators William Sulzer and Clarence D. Watson of West Virginia was made in a petition signed by Governor Glasscock and others, presented to the senate. The petition called attention to charges of bribery publicly made in reference to the election of the two senators.

• • •

President Taft signed the Panama canal bill. He sent congress a message with it suggesting the advisability of the adoption of a resolution declaring the Panama measure was not considered by this government a violation of treaty provisions regarding the canal.

Domestic

The log of the oil steamer Rosecrans, which burned and sank at Sunset, Cal., several days ago, was found in Los Angeles in 1915 and identified as the Methven Castle, the vessel that was purchased by the United States government during the Spanish war.

• • •

Following a petty quarrel with her husband, Mrs. William Fisher of New York city, aged twenty-five, poured kerosene over her head and set fire to it. Three of the children are dead, while the mother and the fourth child are now at the point of death.

• • •

Joe Patchen II, great son of famous Joe Patchen, won his eighth race out of nine starts this season when he easily trimmed the September stake pacers at Readville, Mass., by scoring in three heats in 2:05¼, 2:05¾ and 2:06¾, the fastest heat and race New England has seen this season.

• • •

President Taft declared in a speech from the rear platform of his private car at Springfield, Mass., that he did not intend to take any further part in active politics.

• • •

The American Bar association in session at Milwaukee adopted a resolution requiring that hereafter when newly admitted members apply for membership their race must be made known in the application.

• • •

A woman and a boy were killed and eight other persons were injured, one probably fatally, by lightning, during a severe electrical storm that visited St Louis and vicinity.

• • •

With the surrender of Stevie Israel of Salt Lake City, Utah, the searchers of the murder of Benjamin F. Platt at North Topeka, Kas., February 21, 1911, is cleared. Israel told the Salt Lake police that the object of the deed man was haunting him.

• • •

A severe storm which raged over northwestern Wisconsin played havoc with buildings in many villages and damaged farm property to a large extent, besides demoralizing telephone and telegraph service.

• • •

Ernest W. Ffinan, a wealthy mill builder, committed suicide at his home at Andover, Mass. He had been subpoenaed by the grand jury and was to have testified in connection with the planting of dynamite in Lawrence at the time of the mill strike.

• • •

Three persons lost their lives in a terrific wind and rain storm that swept Cleveland. Virgil Bellows, one of the party aboard the yacht Red Head was knocked overboard and drowned. Michael Sheer and John Mulick were killed by lightning.

Because he referred to a drunken negro as a "bully nigger," W. H. Grif fin, a merchant at Kingston, Ga., was shot and killed by W. J. Wooten, who recently had allied himself with the Bolsheviki.

• • •

Mrs. George A. Pugh, wife of a prominent physician of Kenosha, Wis., is not almost instant death in a collision between an automobile and a delivery wagon. The thill of the wagon came through the glass shield of the automobile and pierced the flesh of Mrs. Pugh and tore a great hole in the heart.

• • •

Two ten loads of documentary evidence bearing on the famous Speck scale will content must be produced before Judge Seaverd in the superior court at San Francisco September 16. The evidence is in the records of the California Sugar Refining company.

• • •

The motion of Clarence S. Darrow's attorneys to dismiss the indictment charging the former chief counsel for the McNamaras with the bribery of Robert Bain, the first juror chosen to try James B. McNamara, was denied by Presiding Judge Willis of the supreme court in Los Angeles, Cal.

• • •

Mrs. Matilda Lutz, 7401 Drexel avenue, Chicago, was killed and Mrs. Charles Lutz and Mrs. Ruth Harper Lutz, their daughter, were injured when their automobile turned three miles west of Valparaiso, Ind.

• • •

Politics

The Nebraska state Republican convention overruled the two state Republican committees in the matter of placing Roosevelt presidential electors be prevented from being placed on the state Republican ballot and that stood put the Progressive electors.

• • •

Gov. Woodrow Wilson expressed himself as satisfied with the delegates of the Progress resolution, calling for the investigation of all the Democratic campaign funds, and said that he hoped the investigation would result in a fund used in bringing about his nomination at Baltimore.

• • •

Foreign

Funeral services for the founder of the Salvation Army, Gen. William Booth, were held at the great Olympia in London, and the body was buried in Abney Park cemetery. In accordance with the general's request at the interment, the services were without pomp or ceremony and the coffin was covered not with mourning fervor and impressiveness.

• • •

The pope is growing weaker daily and will be unable to receive the letter submitted to the pope's nuncio, for the reason that the physicians declare that any excitement in a sitting posture.

• • •

A sufficient force of U. S. marines has been dispatched to Nicaragua to safeguard the interests of the United States and protect American lives and property.

• • •

Gen. Rafael Reyes, former president of Colombia, was severely injured in an automobile collision near Lourdes, France. His condition is so serious that fears are entertained for his recovery.

• • •

The recent edict ordering that all foreigners must pay for their food in dining cars during their journeys through Germany has caused much trouble, the British and American governments having protested against it as a result about fifty incidents have occurred, the first time in the history of the empire that such trouble has been investigated. The edict was issued by the German railroad administration. For years the cars have been used for the benefit of the internal luxury section. A certain number of foreigners have complained.

• • •

Personal

Mrs. Ivor Mitchell, the suffragette leader, was the guest of honor at a tea tail given by Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont at Newport. She was received and took donations on the water front, the proceeds of which will be used for the cause.

• • •

According to Herman F. Snee, driver of a public automobile at Martinsburg, W. Va., Senator Johnson N. Camden has been in the habit of riding to his home in the suburbs of that city with his horse and buggy. Snee says that the senator