INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evangelistic Department, The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 23

ABRAM AND LOT.

LESSON TEXT—Gen. 13:1-12.
GOLDEN TEXT—"The blessing of Jehovah, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow therewith." Prov. 10:22.

During the time that intervened between this and last week's lesson we read of Abram's journey down into Egypt; a story that is rich with suggestive typical lessons. Abram's deceit is discovered by Pharaoh and he is driven from Egypt. Fear is the root of unbelief and when we fail we are sure to carry some one with us. But a man's sin is sure to be discovered so it was that Pharaoh commanded his men and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had." Egypt, a type of the world, turned Abram out (12:20) when he tried the good Lord would divert many of life. Compromise and separation are not compatible.

Lesson's Picture.

I. "Up Out of Egypt," vv. 1-5. Again we have presented the lesson of separation. This portion is a great picture of repentance. Abram carried with him not only his own possessions but also those of his nephew Lot. Likewise, Abram's wealth did not make him acceptable to Egypt. The world desires not alone the wealth of a man, but also the man back of the wealth.

Again Abram turns from conflict unto to Bethel, the house of God, that place of confession, of consecration, and of encouragement.

Three returning pilgrims were not ordained to go more in the man who is in Christ, and God was always given evidence of the blessing promised to Abram (12:2) and of that material blessing so definitely promised to the descendants of Jacob. We read (v. 6) their substance was "much." But there is far greater danger however in material prosperity than in adversity. Adversity is a greater danger to those pilgrims than that of the Canaanites who dwelt in the land

II. "And There Was Strife," vv. 5-9. The evidence of this divine separation set itself when it was found that the land could not support both Abram and Lot (v. 6). Paul calls Timothy's attention to this same danger (I Tim. 6:9), and we are constantly seeing it illustrated all about us.

Cure's Misery.

Lot was journeying with Abram from Haran with (Genesis 12:4) doubtless in a great measure he was governed by cupidity and selfishness when he beheld Abram's prosperity. Abram's attitude is that of the generosity and the prosperity of this which is nearly approaching. He was rich then and yet to worn or in neglect refuse to honor him in or unto the God who sends the blessing. The whole history of Lot is one of selfishness which later resulted in the destruction of his wife, the loss of all his substance and his being shorn of all his worldly possessions and his children and no particular claim upon Abram nor him or his children as well as because of our own merit, upon the basis of the covenant of grace. There is no little that divides most of us and so much that is good. It is a sad thing that it be but little short of strife that we waste our energy upon that which is ephemeral or of slight importance. When Abram was given the choice of Lot and that of Abram. Our exalted lesson text (Gen. 13:10-12; Prov. 4:14, 15, while the other lists the path that "shineth more and more unto the perfect day." Prov. 4:18.

III. "And Lot Pitched Toward Sodom," vv. 10-12. Behold All the Plain of Jordan—Lot's selfishness and guidance of Jehovah Let followed the choice which he was pleasing to the eyes and made a hasty move of it, for to the world he was a great lover. Already the land was denounced by God and no longer that which he chooses the world is preference for what makes a show (Gen. 13:13; 2:17) and the greater condemnation is his for he makes his choice in the very light of nearly twenty centuries of the Gospel. Lot chose wisely for economic profits, a superficial choice and came near losing his own soul (Gen. 19:16, 8:33. He deliberately entered into danger where he finally had his test to wards Sodom." The believer's eye is single (Matt. 6:22; Journey (v. 11) led Lot and Abram sighted to know God. Let had an ambition to prosper and the spirit of thine and sense. Abram coveted righteousness (Matt. Lot coveted success in this life only. Well has Goethe exclaimed, "Whose wolf your choice is brief and yet it is endless." Eternity alone will reveal the results of our choice of surroundings, upon ourselves, upon our families and upon our friends.

IV. "Lift Up Thine Eyes," vv. 14-18. After separation comes fellowship and fruitfulness. God invites Abram to arise and to inspect his promised possessions. So may we contemplate the vast possessions God has promised us in Christ Jesus. Rom. 8:17; 2 Cor. 4:18. After our separation and our fellowship comes true fruitfulness and prosperity, 1 Tim. 4:18. Abram went to Hebron (which means fellowship), and there in the midst of Mamre (which means fatness) he built an altar unto God. Worship and sacrifice go hand in hand today as they did in ages past.

Gave Up Hope

"I suffered five years, with awful pains, due to womanly troubles," writes Mrs. M. D. McPherson, from Chadbourn, N. C. "They grew worse, till I would often faint. I could not walk at all, and I had an awful hurting in my side; also a headache and a backache.

I gave up and thought I would die, but my husband urged me to try Cardui, so, I began, and the first bottle helped me. By the time the third bottle was used, I could do all my work. All the people around here said I would die, but Cardui relieved me."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings, and making weak women strong and well. During this time, thousands of women have written, like Mrs. McPherson, to tell of the really surprising results they obtained by the use of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

Cardui strengthens, builds, restores, and relieves or prevents unnecessary pain and suffering from monthly troubles.

If you are a woman, begin taking Cardui, today.

Remained Long Under Water.

The Paris swimming master, Poulbot, accomplished a remarkable feat recently by remaining six minutes and twenty seconds under water. His previous best performance was four minutes thirty-five seconds. M. Poulbot seemed quite fresh after his exploit, and declared that if he jumped into the water again for seven thirty yards at full speed.

Origin of Famous Phrase.

"Write it in sand" is a corruption of Angelo. Among the Greeks who emigrated to Italy and afterwards to France in the reign of Francis I was one Angelo Meriotti, whose writing excited the admiration of the learned, so that his name became synonymous for the beautiful writing and gave birth to the phrase, to "write like an angel."
