

You Need a Tonic

There are times in every woman's life when the needs of the body are not met by the food she eats. Then there is a need for a tonic. A tonic is a substance that helps to build up the system, to give energy and vitality, to strengthen the nerves, to improve the circulation, to help the stomach and bowels, to give a healthy complexion, to help the hair and skin, to give a healthy sleep, to give a healthy appetite, to give a healthy mind, to give a healthy body, to give a healthy life.

Crops In Kentucky Much Injured By Drouth

Water H. Page, our newly appointed Ambassador at the Court of Saint James, recently acknowledged, according to the Carlisle Mercury, the authorship of "The Southerner," a malicious book, published several years ago under the name of James H. Page. It is a book that is now being read by many of our young people. It is a book that is full of lies and calumnies. It is a book that is full of hatred and malice. It is a book that is full of lies and calumnies. It is a book that is full of hatred and malice.
