The Exodus From The Farm

"The ever-swelling exposition is slowly subsiding," says the Saturday Evening Post in discussing the fact that the youth of the land is coming to believe that "some shop grease, with some oil, and prospects there with, is surely preferable to an unsparked hand that is sure to be empty forty-eight hours after every payday."

"Yes," continues the Post, "the latest statistics do show that one thing beautifully dirty occupations the most healthful, the most free and most up looking of all—is still shunned to an appreciable extent. Farmers' boys who, might out of a few scientifically and intensively cultivated acres at home, make more money, health and future than they can possibly make running a street car, clerking in a store or manipulating an adding machine—persist in going to town.

It has always been somewhat of a mystery to us why the farmer boy should wish to leave God's Out-of-Doors for the smoke laden air and the deadly routine of a factory or workshop. And yet they do wish to leave it, and every train bound city-ward carries recruits doomed to become mere cogs in the wheel—willing victims in the tread mills of mediocrity.

And yet there is a reason for this desire to leave the farm, surely. Are you making the farm attractive for your boy? Or is his life one of endless drudgery, for which the monotony of routine in a city job would prove a welcome substitute? It will pay you to ponder this.

STORM CAUSES MUCH DAMAGE

from trees. In the county the destruction was also heavy. One woodland just over the line from Nicholas was relieved of thirty-eight fine trees.

Such was the fury of the storm at Georgetown that few trees, it is reported are left standing in the city. Numbers of business houses, including part of the Lancaster Hotel, were unroofed.

ONE DEATH IN JESSAMINE

W. T. Bennett, of Jessamine County, was struck by lightning and almost instantly killed while watching the progress of the storm. Many horses and cattle were also killed in that section.

Later Reports Of Damage Done By Saturday's Storm In This County

O. E. Hurst, of the Hurst Home Insurance Company, told a representative of the MERCURY Tuesday that the company's losses in Nicholas county from Saturday's storm would reach $6,000. Mr. Hurst stated that complete reports from the various counties were coming in slowly, and that he hesitated to make an estimate of the entire loss sustained by the company, but that, from present indications, it would probably be somewhat greater than that caused by the tornado which swept central Kentucky this spring.

The following is a list of those who had property damaged by the storm, and who were insured in the Hurst Home:

E. F. Kenney, barn damaged; J. W. Dalzell, barn down; Oscar Wassell, barn damaged; W. D. Sparks, barn damaged; J. J. Sparks, barn down; V. M. Lambert, barn down; Dr. J. W. Burns, two barns down, A. J. McConnaughhay, barn down, Matt Maloney, barn down, Mrs. Amanda Lambert, barn down, of A. J. Barr, barn down.

In the Moorefield neighborhood, Mrs. Annie Wilson had a barn blown down. On the Lambert pike near Land Union, forty-five forest trees were uprooted by the gale. It is said that within the radius of a mile near East Union, twelve barns were damaged or blown down.

The C. T. Bramblett Agency reports the following losses:

J. B. Stewart—of near Jacks town, barn blown down; A. P. Hedges, barn damaged; Robert Brierly, house damaged.

The Mathias Insurance Agency reports the following losses:

H. H. Hamm, top of barn blown off; R. R. Scaby, barn partially destroyed; hail loss on eight acres of tobacco belonging to Frank C. Taylor.

John Fishback, J. J. Fields, children, Virginia Nichols Letton, Jack Knox, W. E. Kerns, C. T. Bramblett, Joe Reed and J. C. Blount had barns blown down, or otherwise damaged by the wind.

The Maysville Bulletin

The Maysville Bulletin says: "Mr. James W. Fitzgerald is at Columbia, S. C., where he went to attend the sale of some of the tobacco sales in the "Pee Dee" section. As the prices on this market are governed largely by those obtained on our neighboring state, it may be of interest to the growers of this locality to know that at the opening sales in the "Pee Dee" prices were higher than ever recorded for an opening sale, logs selling for as high as $35 per hundred and fancy prices are predicted for the season."

County School News

The schools will not open until the third Monday in August instead of the second Monday. A number of trustees were interviewed about the matter last Saturday, and then the County Board was called to decide the matter. The teachers' contracts will be signed the second Saturday in August, at which time all teachers are requested to meet in the Superintendent's office.

Only two schools in the county will begin before that time: Goose Creek and Small. The teachers for these schools will sign their contracts next Saturday. These two schools will begin July 28th. They have plenty of shade and good water.

The County Board awarded the contract of repairing the Jordon school to Mont Ewell, he being the lowest and best bidder. And the contract for the work at Mt. Zion school to A. E. Trumbo, he being the lowest and best bidder.

We were invited to speak to the Pleasant Valley people last Tuesday night at their school house. We were surprised at the large crowd present since it had only been announced at their Sunday School. These good people are interested in education and are great School Improvement Leaguers and they felt at home in this school house and with these people as we found them. We stated at succession preceding our election. Miss Nicholas Woodall will be their teacher this year. They have some money in their League treasury and are going to do some work on the inside of the school house.

We wish to ask the trustees to notify us of wells and the cisterns that need cleaning before schools open.

All trustees who have not cut the weeds in the school yards will please see that this is done as soon as possible.

Another Campaign Lie

During my recent illness, the report that I have withdrawn from the race for County Judge has been started by some of my enemies. I wish to state that I have never even thought of withdrawing, but trusting to the desire of the best citizens of Nicholas County for better conditions for the next four years, I expect to win the nomination in the primary, Aug. 2, 1913.

Very truly yours,

J. E. PLUMMER

Rev. W. J. Harney Writes Mercury A Card

DEAR MERCURY:

Nicholas County and Carlisle have spoken loudly, 800 strong, that dry was preferable. No whiskey selling or bootlegging was wanted.

For people do not want the morals of our county wrecked by placing men in office who are in favor of whiskey or "Blind Tigering."

We have men who are noble, true men who have been tried and will see to it that law is enforced. So let's be very careful who we vote for.

Turn our county affairs over to those who favor rum and we will have things wrecked and ruined.

We can't believe that the honest voters of grand old Nicholas will vote for any man who has been or is wet. Never.

We need good, sober, temperate men as county officials. Judge James Plummer has been a faithful servant. Men, business men of Carlisle, tell us that there has never been a better Police, Judge. We know him; we can trust our county in his honest, sober hands. We must not, can't afford to elect any good man beaten by the Whiskey Devil. Every voter, every Democrat or Republican, is fighting Judge Plummer; every Christian gentleman is working for Judge Plummer.

Why? Just Because the Church can't afford, to elect men who have been wet or will not enforce the law.

2nd. Or men who are in with the whiskey devil.

3rd. Honest people will in spite of all whiskey devils would do. Men are pronounced temperate men. Men who will never side in with the Rum Gang. This gang causes three-tenths of all crimes. Rum will wreck us. So let us, the good, the noble, the sober men, who do not want our town and county disgraced with whiskey, our boys to become drunkards, our girls ruined by drunken husbands, our men fill the murder mills and jails—we for the man who has always been against whiskey and and a man who will stand by enforced our laws.

For young manhood's sake, for mother's sake, for bleeding hearted wives' sake, for children's sake, for God's sake, let me pray you—yea, for Jesus' sake, let me urge you voters to vote for Judge Plummer. He will win. He's the right man to beat the whiskey element with. He has climaned out the whiskey from Carlisle more than any other officer we have ever had. If we will stand united, don't let the whiskey devil scatter our forces, let's all join Plummer and win. If we will, our schools will climb, our pikes worked, our churches will be loaded, our homes will be filled with joy, our jails empty, our county grow up as far and wide draw men of wealth and character to us.

Pray, mothers; pray, bleeding hearted wives; pray, children; preachers, have backbone, warn the people, urge the voters to stand by their pastor, redeemed, devoted wives, sweet, innocent children, fall in line. The cry has gone forth all over grand old Nicholas that Plummer's enemies are whipped. Men tell us he stands by far the much better candidate as to beer and whiskey crowd with.

Let's cast our worst enemy—whiskey—devide our forces.

I am for Judge Plummer because I have known him cry years to be a noble, true, sober, temperate, faithful servant.

2nd. Because we can, through him, win this all important battle.

Your Humble Servant,
REV. W. J. HARNEY,

SOME BUSINESS NO POLITICS

Well, by the time our friends read this column, in our judgment, Judge Harney, of Covington, will have dismissed the suit against the Burley Tobacco Company. It is a matter brought, not in the interest of the stockholder of the Burley Tobacco Company, but for the purpose of securing control of the Company and its finances by persons who desire such control for reasons of their own. Every stockholder of the Burley Tobacco Company ought to stand by the officers of the Company? it is no time to DESERT to the enemy. You know that this Company is under the able management of Clarence Lebus, has brought you a price for your tobacco that you would never have believed possible. As an intelligent man, as a man loyal to your leaders, you should STAND BY THE COMPANY and IT'S OFFICERS. You will be very foolish if you do otherwise. The boat that carried you over the turbulent stream and landed you safely on the dry plain of prosperity and GOOD PRICES should be good enough for another voyage. Of course there are "kickers;" also deserters; they left the ship of State since the days of the Saviour. The job that Judas Secured did for thirty pieces of silver could be done today for half the money and the traitor would not have the decency to go hang himself afterwards. The Carlisle Real Estate Company advises it friends to stand by the Company and its officers. It's money in your pocket, it's loyalty to the people who have been your difficulties. It's decency. STAND BY YOUR COMPANY.

The books are closing at Detroit on Ford automobile orders for this season. It is fortunate as to have a few touring cars on hand; the Ford dealer in this section of country has them. Now is the season of year to buy a car. The Ford is the car to buy for use in this section of country—the Fairs are just coming on, trotting and race meetings almost fierce and if you need a car at any time it is this season of the year. BUY NOW, while WE HAVE THEM. Five passenger car for SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS—think of that—"as fresh as a daisy, as clean as a hound's tooth, and the best car for anything like the money ever made. Come and get one at once before the other fellow gets it. No more this season after this lot is gone.

Now, if you are in the market for a nice farm, we have fifty choice tracts for sale, from 50 to 200 acres each. We are able to sell a farm to suit any purchaser, if you want a cheap farm, we have it, if you want a high priced farm, we have it; if you want a farm in between we have it. Our automobile sits in front of our office every day and it is no trouble to show you any farm you might like to see.

We have been favored with as the elegant suburban home of Mrs. Sallie Congleton on the extension of Seventh street just outside the city limits. This is a beautiful home with about an acre of ground, a modern two-story house of nine rooms, bath, fine cisterns, good water, excellent neighborhood, price RIGHT to home-like people.

Mrs. Jennie Arthur, who has just returned to her home at Middletown, after a long spell of her beautiful little cottage on West Main street, has a beautiful room, cellar, Number One good stable, splendid cistern, a very convenient and desirable home. Commodious and comfortable veranda; worth the price of the property, which is $3500.

We are in a position to give an extraordinary value on that fine acre place belonging to Burley Tobacco Company, known as the Hutchings property. Good improvements, consisting of 2-story house, stable, pasture, ball park, etc., See us about this at once.

Also that elegant, almost new residence property formerly occupied by James F. Sugg, now belonging to the People's Warehouse Company in the West End of Carlisle. W. D. McIntire, manager, tells us to SELL THAT PROPERTY. Also the 7-acre grass lot just behind it. Will sell you one and see these properties?

HAIL! HAIL! It's the hail time of year. You OUGHT to take out Hail Insurance on your crop of tobacco. The cost of this insurance is very little and the return may be very large. We can write you an absolutely satisfactory policy on your growing crop and guarantee everything to be just right. Fifty dollars an acre costs you $1.50. Seventy-five dollars an acre costs you $2.00, while a value of one hundred dollars an acre costs you $3.00. Can you afford not to take it? Write or call us by telephone, or come to see us. But do not delay action.

The will of the late B. F. Hollar was filed with the County Clerk for probate. To all of his brothers and sisters, with the exception of his sister, Mary E. Morris, he left one dollar. To her he left his estate consisting of 51 acres of land and other personal property.

The following unsigned poem has been received by the MERCURY. It came from Muir, Ky. That's all we can tell you about it:

To Old Paris Hill.

Take me back to dear Kentucky,
Let me see once more the river,
Hear the music of the mill.

Let me sit on grassy hillsides,
Under beeches spreading leaves,
Loving back upon the days
Time, with busy shuttle, weaves.

May I see again the old home,
Standing through the blustering trees?
May I feel the balmy breezes
Of a Lacking River breeze?

I would sit beneath the shed there,
Where kind nature laid the floor,
Hear the water's low concussion,
Listened to from every door.

Dear old cottages and beauties,
Walks and trees, and stones and gates,
Gardens, orchards, and wet meadows,
Where the chigger sits and waits!

Friends I've seen there, gay and happy,
Cross Death's stone day by day,
And our cottages be lured there,
Are decaying, fast away.

But a little place we'll keep here
In our feelings, as years go by;
And 'mid jokes and daily trials,
In the last week sigh.

We'll remember how we hiked so,
And in raiment fresh we dyked us,
To sign up for Cottage Seven
Lest they catch us on the fly.

To The Democratic Voters

This is my first term of office, and the County School Superintendent has also been elected for the second term in Nicholas County. Why should it? I have worked hard, and had more things to contend with than any other officer. I belong to no clique and am working only for the office and the interest of the schools. I appreciate the kindness of all, and have tried to make a faithful officer, and shall endeavor to make you the same faithful Superintendent if you will honor me with the office again, and I believe that you will. I do not believe that honest thinking people will believe the many false statements made against me by those who were against me in my other campaign, and by those who were simply prejudiced for personal interests. I am willing to let my work stand for itself. The people and am sure that my daily life among the sixteen years that I taught in the best schools of the county, and also during the time I was in the office, will show that no office will be sufficient for those who know me.

Should you unkind want for those who have said unkind things against me, I am sorry for them. I ask you to consider the following questions:

Haven't the schools of Nicholas County improved since I have been in office?

Haven't I given my full time to the work?

Haven't we raised the standard of the county schools?

Haven't we better prepared teachers? Haven't we had the greatest educational rallies and largest Teachers' Institutes ever held in Nicholas?

Haven't we brought the county into prominence in the State by the School Fairs and have old your children been benefitted by the extra work we have done with the school fairs?

Didn't I work days, weeks and months to get the schools properly graded? Ask the teachers; they know.

Didn't I spend night after night in School Improvement League work in order to interest the people in schools?

Haven't you found me at the office at all times unless I was on some other school business?

Haven't we squeezed spending too much money in one district when so many other schools needed attention?

I have worked hard this first term; give me the office a second time. I believe you will.

Adv. LIDA E. GARDNER.
