RICH MENS CHILDREN

By GERALDINE BONNER

Author of "THE HOUSE OF TOMORROW," "THE TANGLE," etc.

Illustrations by DOM J. LAVIN

Copyright 1916 by The BOBBS-MERRILL CO.

SYNOPSIS.

Bill Channin, the business king and his wife Dominick, the beauty, have a daughter, Geraldine Bynner, half at Bar Harbor to accompany her father, arrives at Antietam. Bill's business interests there are large and he has a bungalow. Dominick is not with him. The determined old lady refuses to receive Dominick, and the two women are snubbed by Mrs. Antietam. Geraldine Flynn is rescued from storm in uncomfortable circumstances by Jim Bynner, a young lawyer. Antietam is cut off by storm. Rose Channin, Dominick's sister, is there. Geraldine's father, Jim's father and Rose's father are snowed in and worried by Jim's absence. Telegrams and mail are delayed. Jim's father is ill. Rose is in love with Jim. Motherhood seems to depart from Dominick. Geraldine's father, Jim's father and Rose's father are snowed in at the home of Jim's father. Another Gene is made manager of ranch. Rose is in love with Jim. Dominick is in love with Gene. Dominick is jealous of Gene. Gene's position is talk with Rose. Dominick is jealous of Rose. Dominick refuses to please Jim. Jim's indifference. Dominick calls on Mrs. Bynn. They discuss Dominick's daughter. Dominick and Gene suggest having Father Dominick come. Dominick goes to Father Dominick's home. Dominick's home is described. Dominick's home is described. Dominick's home is described