CARLISLE MERCURY

WARREN R. FISHER, Ed. and Pub.

CARLISLE, . . . KENTUCKY.

Even though it is impossible to conserve all the money, a fellow can try.

In a Canadian town; milk was used to extinguish a fire. Must have been well watered.

Perhaps the next thing will be a pioneering echo service between the city and the farm.

A Boston physician says whiskers are a sort of capillary fungus. There are some that look it.

A Delaware hotel has four cats regularly employed to deal with rats. Wonder who furnishes the rats?

A man who had four aces beaten by a straight flush called the police, making the second bad call of the episode.

So patriotic is the average citizen that he will not express even an opinion, preferring to send it by parcel post.

A divorce case at Reno took nine minutes for trial. They've got the thing down to a system there, all right.

If you save your money you will be called a "tightwad." If you scatter it you will be referred to as a "spendthrift."

"Leap year," says an eastern paper, "proved to be fruitful." And doubtless there were a few lemons as well as peaches.

Blotting paper was discovered in 1466, but it has taken mighty hard work ever since to find any use for what it was.

A New Jersey man, 100 years old, says he has never had a wrinkle or scratch. But think of all the practice he's had.

A Chicago professor says there are more insane persons in this country than college students. Some prefer sure possibly.

The Prince of Wales is learning to play the bagpipes to develop his lungs, and probably will go horizontal for endurance.

A Seattle judge has ruled that it is not proper for husband and wife to call each other names. That would only be stowing up trouble.

American phonographs are popular in all parts of the world. They are popular with their owners, of course, not the neighbors.

A student of such things says that long sleep tends to produce crime, but criminals are always trying to cause their victims sleeping.

A remarkable duel has just taken place in Hungary, where the combatants actually inflicted each other before honor was satisfied.

A Philadelphia lawyer says that a lobster is not a good sport. But most of those are good spechers.

Preparations are blog made to lure rich mothers on the cure of children. As usual, the lobstering will be done by unmarried women.

Western city is said to remedy the nuisance of all the dogs in the city directory in order to increase the popular ity list. Nothing doggered?

A Mooney woman challenged her husband to a duel and killed him, just because he was jealous of her. An old way of settling once fidelity would be a troublesome job because there are many of them and they are scattered. They are quite numerous, so naturally they would be, in the old sections of the city, or at least in the old sections of the city, or at least in the old sections of the city, or at least