COMMENT

Whatever may be said of Owsley Stanley, his worst enemies must admit that when the necessity for verbal javelins filled our Owsley speaks right on."

Apropos of the redding by Congressman Humphrey of an editorial from a Seattle newspaper, in which sneering reference was made to heroism of the Democratic "country lawyer" members of the Ways and Means Committee, Mr. Stanley replied. "The statement read by the gentleman from Washington is the most unpatriotic and candid utterance of the spirit of Republicanism heard within the walls of this chamber in my 14 years. His boldness is his language as his cause. We long have known that they upon that side believe that all virtue, all power and all intelligence reside in the great financial centers and was to be found only among the enormously rich in the great cities. We are told that the Ways and Means Committee is incompetent because we come from the more benighted districts in which Washington and Jefferson, Madison and Hamilton found an abode. We are told that you must go to the great marts where your Harrimans, your Rockefellers and your Morgans and the Republican party's other Republicanism hold absolute dominion and impose on the people the privilege to write the laws of the land.

"There is nothing more unique in its absurd incongruity than this assault the standpatters are now making on the tyranny of the Ways and Means Committee. Why, it will take another year of growth of hair before the mark of Cannon's rule will be done off of their necks. The stoop Marriage Licenses Issued.

May Be The Last Pilgrimage Of Confederates

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 7.—Perhaps the last pilgrimage they will make as a body to the famous battle grounds of Lookout Mountain, Chickamauga and Mission Ridge, will be the 1913 Confederate Reunion. May 27-29 The railroads of the Southeastern Passengers Association have made a thirty days rate of a cent a mile. The city of the host has ended the requisite number of tents and cots in order that Chattanooga may satisfactorily care for the 15,000 Veterans who are expected to attend, and who will be lodged and fed free of all cost. The United Sons of Veterans will hold their reunion at the same place, May 27-29. They will bring with them the usual host of beautiful Southern women as sponsors, maids of honor and chaperons, all of who will be lavishly entertained by the citizens of Chattanooga.

Enthusiasm and interest never was so high in the South over the annual reunion of the battle scarred veterans whose spectacular parade at Chattanooga is expected to be viewed by over one hundred thousand visitors in that city of like population.
