CONVENTION OF CHURCH PEOPLE AT MOOREFIELD

Secretary Bryan Addressing California Legislature

Enthusiastic Meeting Held By Christian Church Of Nicholas County

Crowd Enjoys Bounteous Dinner After Listening To Inspiring Speeches

The annual convention of the Nicholas County Christian Church was held at Moorefield, Friday, May 16. The meeting was successful from every standpoint and the crowd of enthusiastic church members who attended the convention were amply repaid for the program was an unusually good one and the addresses of the day were interesting and instructive. The threatening weather conditions few people away, but the attendance was large and the unfavorable weather conditions were overcome.

Brief News Of Neighboring Counties

Frank R. Powers, a painter, was thrown from a motorcycle, and Mr. R. L. Jones, aged 72, of Suburban, was injured.

The home of C. L. Cann, of Community, was destroyed by fire.

The residence and barn of Mr. W. M. Stirling, of the town of Stirling, was destroyed by fire.
