Telephone Saved Child's Life

One of the children fell into a water tank on an Alabama farm and was rescued unharmed and apparently lifeless. The father tried to reach the child and called the doctor a mile away. He told her what to do and started at once, but before he arrived the child was out of danger.

The protection of women and children is only one of the chief values of the telephone in our farm.

Prominent Farmer Sent To Jail In Clark County

For his failure to answer a question put to him by the Clark County grand jury, David Prewitt, a prominent farmer who lives on the Fayette Station farm, was sentenced to jail for contempt of court by Judge Horton last Thursday.

The question put to Mr. Prewitt by the grand jury was: "Do you own any money having been used in the recent primary?" and the answer was: "Only what was told me in confidence by my informant and was committed to me by David B. Hampton, sentenced to jail in Clark County for refusing to answer a question asked him by the grand jury, and who served a term of one month in the county jail, but only released the day before."

Mr. Prewitt answers Question A Released Friday

Mr. Prewitt was released Friday upon the recommendation of the foreman of the grand jury, and he was not held in jail. He was released the day before.
