County School News

The first year we came into office I spent 81 days out of the 120 school days out in the various schools of the county assisting the teachers in grading their schools according to the State Course of Study. In some of the schools I spent two and three days that year and a whole day in nearly every school. We put in a uniform report book for each pupil in the county and with the splendid help of the teachers the schools of Nicholas County were all splendidly graded the past three years. But this year only fifteen teachers went back to the same schools and a number of new teachers were employed, hence, in order to keep the schools graded and to keep the teachers from making any mistakes about this time, it is necessary to have some one spend at least a day with the young teacher especially. And as they should have assistance as early in the term as possible, and it being impossible for me to get to all in a day and spend a whole day, we laid the matter before the County Board, who is always ready to do what is best for the advancement of the schools. They, knowing the great amount that I have to do, gladly appointed Mrs. Geo. Taylor as Assistant Supervisor for one month or six weeks. Mrs. Taylor has had successful experience as a teacher in Nicholas and Harrison Counties and resides near Carlisle where she can turn in a report of each school at night. We will make out a schedule for Mrs. Taylor and she will see that there is no cross grading in the schools visited by her. She will also report the children not attending school. We will visit each school in the county just twice during the year, spending a day with each. But Mrs. Taylor will spend at least one day with teachers who have had less than four years experience in teaching.

Last Tuesday we visited the Pleasant Valley school, whose teacher is Miss Mollie Woodall. We were delighted with her excellent system, not one single bit of cross grading, excellent order, house neat and clean and attractive looking.

Tuesday night we talked to a large audience at the school house regarding the Agriculture Night School, after which an Agriculture Night School was organized there. That Pleasant Valley has the honor of having the first organization of this kind in the county, and as far as we know, the first in the state.

Pleasant Valley had the first School Improvement League in the county. This league was organized when we were teacher three eight years ago the 11th of October next, and it is still doing good work. The late Hon. L. R. Keller assisted us to organize this league. They have bought everything necessary for their school and the last thing purchased is a beautiful chandelier which is hung in the center of the room and lights the house beautifully.

Referring again to the Agricultural Night School, there than there were men, women, boys and girls, whose ages ranged from fourteen to up in sixty years. All seemed very enthusiastic over the course of study proposed per cent of really good tobacco and Miss Woodall gladly agreed to let their teacher.

They took up the study of the soil for the first lesson and were surprised to find how little they really knew about the subject. They have

The League gave Miss Woodall $12 with which to order material for hand work for the children. Look out for Pleasant Valley School and its School Fair.

Last Friday was Parents Day at the rural schools and 27 have reported with a total of 165 parents who visited the schools. Miss Pearl McCann at Blue Lick School had the largest number, there being 18 present. This speaks well for both patrons and teacher of this school.

We fear some teachers did not invite the parents, and we know some parents were invited and did not go. Parents, you owe it to your children to show your interest.

Last Saturday the teachers of Divisions A and B met in the Superintendent's office to elect officers and to arrange for the Associations. Victor Snapp was elected President of Division A, Mrs. Turner Thomas, Vice President, and Miss Ira Wasson, Secretary. Their place of meeting will be Saltwell, Oct. 10th.

Division B elected Miss Stella Wasson, President; Miss Mollie Woodall, Vice President, and Miss Nellie Clancy, Secretary; place of meeting, Myers; date, Oct. 11th.

All the teachers of Division A were present except Misses Mamie Turley, Grace Ogden and Joe Burden, are all of Division B except Misses Sallie Hilvell and Maggie and Lena Hopkins.

Division C is called to meet next Saturday in the Superintendent's office at 1:30, P. M. Every teacher is expected to be present.

We shall not be in the office much from during the rest of this month, except on Saturdays, until we shall have finished the supervision of the schools.

Moorefield school began last Monday. They will open Sept. 29th. The furniture for the Myers High School has arrived and the school is to be opened this week.

Two parents have been fined $5 each in this county for not sending children to school.

SOME BUSINESS AND NO POLITICS

This column is owned and edited by the Carlisle Real Estate Company, who are responsible for what appears herein.

Farm lands are moving and would move even more briskly but for one thing; some of our farmer friends are holding on just a little too tightly. If they want to sell, Brother Farmer, you must make the price attractive. No use putting a prohibitive price on your farm if you want it sold. Plenty of people are looking for farms and want 'em bad, but the price must be right or there will be no sale. We can sell them if anybody can, but we cannot sell them for more than they are worth. Let's adopt a "live and let live" policy and then things will move. Good tobacco is going to bring a good price, but, unfortunately, the is going to be small. Make your asking price reasonable and we will sell your farm. We have the buyers and they will buy if you give them a reasonable price.

Here's a mighty good bargain for somebody—170 acres of good land just over the line in Fleming County, two good houses, two extra barns, nearly 100 acres good tobacco land, a nice, clean, productive farm and very cheap at $40 an acre. It's a bargain, sure.

Here's a nice little home in Nicholas County, midway between Headquarters and Hookstown—75 acres good land, new house of 6 rooms, new barn, and the place can be had for the very low price of $6,500. It's worth more money.

Here's a couple of thousand dollars easy money for somebody—120 acres on the Maysville & Carlisle pike, 3 miles from Carlisle, two houses, good barn and well, nicely watered and well fenced, strong productive land, and looks good, and very, very low price of $6,000. It can be made worth $90 to $100 an acre with proper cultivation.

A fine Bourbon County farm—two farms, one in Cynthiana & Millersburg pike and 3-1-2 miles from Millersburg, a typical blue grass farm, big tobacco barn, nice small house, stables, smoke house, etc., one of the prettiest farms to be found anywhere, and the price is low at $110 an acre. Would be cheap at $125.

Just ready for somebody who wants a nice home—60 1-2 acres, 3 1-2 miles from Carlisle, nice big house in first class repair, big barn, good pike, land all in grass, a very desirable home and cheap at $100 an acre. We call this our "Preacher" farm for the reason that it is now owned by a minister and is the old Rev. Milton Mann place.

Here's a chance to build your house to suit yourself, make it big or little and with such conveniences as pleases you. 94 3-4 acres of very fine land, no improvements of any kind whatever but just about the finest building site in this county, five acres of this land is worth $1000 an acre), on the best pike in the county, 1-4 mile of Moorefield. We are offering you a good thing in this land at $90 an acre.

Here is something never advertised before—80 acres, one of the nicest homes in Nicholas County, nice big house, stock barn, corn crib, tobacco barn, new silo, abundance of fruit, elegant location, 4 miles from Carlisle, near Moorefield, and this 80 acres for $9,000. Now this is an elegant home and somebody ought to grab it quick.

Here's your Blue Grass farm—294 acres, midway between Paris and Millersburg, nothing better to be found in Kentucky, magnificent improvements, a home fit for a Prince of the Realm, and this farm is cheap at $150 an acre.

One of the very best little homes in all this country—87 1-2 acres, good big two story house, big tobacco barn, one stock barn, everything good and excellent, no better neighborhood, a RED SOIL FARM, first rate in the world, and cheap at $127.50 per acre. This is a GOOD farm.

220 acres near Shelbyville, fine land, fine improvements, splendid house, stock barn, tobacco barn, dairy barn for 50 cows, everything good, and $225 an acre.

A magnificent estate in Fayette County of 730 acres, 9 miles from Lexington on the Richmond pike, not far from Winchester, 2 cut into small farms would be worth $200 an acre. Has been used for a race horse grazing farm, will sell the whole for $125 an acre.

We have 150 fine farms in Fayette, Bourbon, Clark, Woodford and adjoining counties, as well as a great number in Nicholas, Fleming, Bath, and neighboring counties, that simply cannot be enumerated—too many for that. Come in and let's talk them over. Forgot to mention one that should be bought right away—116 acres, 3 miles from Carlisle, big house, good tobacco barn, cheap at $65 an acre. 28 acres adjoining this, real good land, can be had at same price.

Right at this time some fine bargains in desirable city property. Come in and see us and we will do you good.

LIMIT FOR TIRES AND LOADS

Chairman Diehl of National Roads Board, Favors Highway Conventions to Consider Legislation.

A meeting of leading state highway commissioners and the manufacturers of motor trucks and other heavy horse driven trucks, is the suggestion of Chairman Logan Diehl of the U. S. A. A. National Good Roads board, to consider legislation regarding the width of tires and the weight of loads.

"Many states have enacted laws to regulate the width of tires, but there has not been any enforcement of those regulations," says Chairman Diehl. "Uniformity in legislation is the wet season, form ruts in impassable. In many instances there the roads are week, break through the surface and destroy much portion of the highway.

Rev. Ray Eldred Meets Death In South Africa On September 3rd

A letter received by Rev. W. G. Eldred, Tuesday at noon from the Foreign Christian Missionary office, at Cincinnati, brought the sad news of the death of his brother, Ray Eldred, in South Africa.

The letter stated that a cablegram had been received, telling of the death by drowning, of Rev. Ray Eldred, on the 3rd of September. Rev. Eldred, whose missionary station was at Longa, in Congo Free State, is known to have been establishing new stations in a more distant part of the Congo, when he met his death. No particulars, as to the manner in which he was drowned have as yet reached the Foreign office. It takes six weeks for a letter to reach here from the Congo, and as a consequence, will be some time before more definite news comes.

Rev. Eldred has been in Africa, since 1902. He was supported by the Christian Church, at South Bend, Ind., being their Living Link representative in the missionary field.

An extract from the letter received by his brother Rev. W. G. Eldred, from the Foreign Missionary Society, Tuesday, says:—"On behalf of the society I wish to assure you of our deepest sympathy in this sad bereavement. We never sent a better man to any mission field than your brother. He was a thorough Christian, fair minded, gentle towards all in distress, loyal to the interest of the Kingdom."

Rev. Ray Eldred was in charge of all mission work of the church in the Congo, and was legal representative to the Belgian government. He graduated in the class of 1901 at Kentucky University, and was one of the most popular students of his class, his prowess on athletic fields being still famous in college annals.

At the time of his death Rev. Eldred is known to have been on a journey to Monyera, a settlement on one of the tributaries of the Congo, where he had gone with Rev. Hopgood, a newly arrived missionary, for the purpose of establishing new stations.

Mrs. Eldred died in Africa, on the 15th of last November, of fever, leaving two young sons ath now in Horton Memorial Home at Hiram, O.

The MERCURY extends, upon behalf of this community, the deepest sympathy to the bereaved family in their great sorrow.

"The Quaker Girl," "Oliver Twist" and other successes are also in the line of burlesque.

Peach auction, by far the most interesting feature of the entire show, is produced by Ned Wayburn and is said to be entirely new and different from anything ever seen in Lexington.

Riley Payne Dies At Myers As Result Of Blow On The Head Received During Quarrel With W. F. Clark

Riley Payne, aged 40, of Myers, died Wednesday morning, at 2 o'clock as the result of a blow received in the head Monday morning, during an altercation with W. F. Clark, the Parks' Ferry merchant.

D. W. Myers, John Buchanan, Geo McLean, Tom Vaughn, W. T. Clark and J. C. B. Gillispie were empaneled as a Coroner's Jury by Coroner Hutchings, Wednesday. The jury found that the deceased "came to his death by reason of a blow with a stick, struck by W. F. Clark."

The trouble between the two men is said to have been the result of a quarrel over the payment for some corn, and occurred on the river bank, near the mouth of Cassidy Creek. Payne, it is claimed, was advancing on Clark with a knife when Clark struck him with a stick. Payne regained consciousness for about three hours.

Mr. W. F. Clark Is Dismissed At Examining Trial Held Wednesday Afternoon

At the examining trial held before Justice J. T. Clay Wednesday afternoon, Clark was dismissed, the evidence proving conclusively that he struck Payne in self defense.
