

What you want in paint is one that flows from the brush, that spreads evenly, that dries quickly and stays bright.

You can get your eyes and tell from the feel of the brush, as you paint, that is full-bodied, smooth, elastic and tenacious. You can feel it cling to the wood, and it will never crack or flake off.

There is no secret about making good, durable paint. The formula is on every can on the Green Seal Paint.

Strengthen Weak and Tired Women

It is not a great secret that the health of a woman is the most important thing in her life. A woman's health is the foundation of her happiness and the source of her strength. If a woman is weak and tired, she cannot do her duty to her family or to her country. It is therefore, of the greatest importance that a woman should take care of her health.

Wasted Effort

is the result of a woman's neglecting her health. It is the result of her eating the wrong kind of food, of her drinking the wrong kind of water, of her sleeping the wrong kind of sleep, and of her doing the wrong kind of work. It is the result of her not taking care of her health.
