Rural School News

The various school clubs were organized in the superintendent's office last Saturday. Over 2500 children entered the following clubs—corn, tomato, tobacco, potato and poultry. Nearly every district in the county were represented, and it was very interesting and gratifying to see the schools taking so much interest.

The Nicholas County Board of Education met last Friday and transacted quite a lagged of business. Committees were appointed to [illegible] and contracted on a [illegible] after work to be done at the following school districts. Headtown, Goose Creek, Cane Run, Henry and Mt. Vernon. There pair work on the schoolhouses and school yards will begin about the 10th of May. I would drive to several districts in company with the various chairmen and the trustee of the districts some time in May to ascertain repairs needed.

We shall return from Louisville Friday night and will be in the office Saturday and contribute. We trust that all trustees will know taken a certain will return their courtesy.

We have a nice selection of garden and flower seed sent to us by Hon. W. J. Fesler, our Congressman. They will be left with A. T. Gardner over the Farmer's Bank. Call and get both while they last.

The school trustees are planning to attend the K. E. A. at Louisville the last of April. The Carlisle City Board enrolled all of its members, and has ordered the school closed and all of the teachers to attend. All of the teachers and most of the trustees of the county will attend.

Council Meeting

All members were present at the regular monthly meeting of the Council Monday night.

The subject of doing away with the present fire alarm was discussed, and after adoption of a more modern idea, known as the Turn-false, a motion was made.

The plan to be adopted in paying for use of water was discussed.

Clerk reported license collected to the amount of $6. Treasurer reported balance of $4,138.60. Police Judge reported fines re ceived $3.00 and fines assessed, which were appealed to Circuit Court, $100.

A petition, signed by property owners on Sycamore street, asking that a concrete pavement be ordered put down from Seventh to Locust, was presented by Dr. R. F. Saunder. The Street Commissioner was ordered to make necessary fill for the pave ment and the matter will be referred to the Street Committee.

An ordinance was adopted requiring that citizens confine their chickens to their own premises, imposing a fine of $1 for each offense. The ordinance is published in this issue of The Mercury.
