The Twenty Year Test

"Some twenty years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes George W. Brock, publisher of the Enterprise, Aberdeen, Md. "I discovered that it was a quick and safe cure for diarrhoea. Since then no one can sell me anything said to be 'just as good.'" During all these years I have used it and recommended it many times, and it has never disappointed anyone. For sale by All Dealers. Adv.

Differing Blood Corpuscles.

The cyranate of the blood of a white man are extremely small, measuring less than one two-thousandth part of an inch in length and are shaped rather like thin bricks. The blood corpuscles of a negro appear like thin red plates or long, thin, flat bars under distinguishable from those of a white man.

The Case Of L. L. Cantelou

The case of L. L. Cantelou, Clarendon, Texas, is similar to that of many others who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says: "After trying a doctor for several months and using different kinds of medicine for my wife who had been troubled with severe bowel complaint for several months, I bought a 25c. bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using the second bottle she was entirely cured." For sale by All Dealers. Adv.

London Clubs and Strangers.

The Athenaeum club of London has rescinded its rule forbidding members to invite strangers to luncheon or dinner in its public rooms. Only two clubs now remain in the British metropolis where a member cannot be entertained, the Reform and the Junior Carlton.

Constipation Causes Sickness.

Don't permit yourself to become constipated, at your earliest opportunity take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately begins to absorb poisons from the backed up waste matter. Use Dr. King's New Life Pills and keep well. There is no better safeguard against illness. Just take one dose to night. Get at your druggist.

Evidently Had a Grudge.

The fish hook for instant when the fish was in the flying machine and it went down upon the automobilist said the prophetic youth. "Ah, ha!" said he, replied the weary old pedestrian, "that be I fall down on him, too."

Not So Strange After All

You may think it strange that so many people are cured of stomach trouble by Chamberlain's Tablets. You would not, however, if you would give them a trial. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Mrs. Rosie Rish, Wabash, Ind., writes, "Nothing else in the least good until I began using Chamberlain's Tablets. They are decidedly the best medicine for stomach trouble I have ever used." Soap From Whale Oil.

Whale oil for years almost a drug on the market, has recently become the basis of more valuable products. The discovery of a way to use it in making soap, which will not harden, has imparted value unlike anything to its self-smell.

How To Cure A Sprain

A sprain may be cured in about one-third of the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle. For sale by All Dealers Advertisement.

Danger In Candy Spitting.

Blacksburg winegrowers are getting excited over the anti-tuberculosis crusade and have their eyes on the spitting habit. The wisdom of an anti-spitting crusade when going in the right direction is admitted by progress is retarded. Reformers should try to avoid the waste of haste.

Summer Constipation Dangerous

Constipation in summer time is more dangerous than in the fall, winter or spring. The food you eat is often contaminated and always likely to ferment in your stomach. Then you are apt to drink much cold water during the hot weather. This injuring your stomach. Colic, Fever, Pimonine Poison and other ills are natural results. Po-Do-Lax will keep you well, as it increases the bile, the natural laxative, which rids the bowels of the congested poisonous waste. Po-Do-Lax will make you feel better. Pleasant and effective. Take a dose tonight. 50c at your druggist.

MILLION ON LINER

Empress of Ireland Has That Much Silver Aboard

Fair Chance of Recovering Valuable Cargo on Sunken Ship—Number of Expert Divers Are Ready to Go Down, Says Report.

London.—Salvage experts here agree that there is a fair chance of recovering the millions of silver said to be aboard the Empress of Ireland. The managing director of a company called attention to the following successful operation:

Four hundred and [illegible] thousand gold coin—21 pounds—were saved from the wreck of the Laurentic XII, which was sunk in [illegible] of water—a greater depth at which the Empress lies. Of this amount [illegible] was in bullion.

Fifty thousand dollars' worth of silver bars—all of it—was recovered from the steamer Islander, half to be [illegible] Cape Flattery.

In the case of the Alaska XII the difficulties were very great. Mr. Davis and a staff of [illegible] der Lambert, had to use [illegible] recover [illegible] bullion before he could get to the [illegible] which the treasure was.

"Dynamite had also [illegible] the operations for salvage [illegible] bars of the Skyro and [illegible] was finished the [illegible] heap of scrap iron. [illegible] decided to sand [illegible] side in 17 fathoms—[illegible] feet of water.

"At this depth," Mr. [illegible] said, "a diver can work [illegible] hours a day [illegible] than thirty-[illegible] minutes at a time. [illegible] however, about half an hour to get [illegible] water, and [illegible] of water—a greater [illegible] bring out [illegible] bullion.

"When a diver [illegible] the bullion he [illegible] to ask [illegible] normal pressure [illegible] 14 pounds for every ten feet [illegible] down. At work beneath [illegible] of water he would [illegible] saturated with nitrogen.

"For this reason [illegible] to be used careful in ascending to the surface. Otherwise, as the divers say, he would be set up in the blood vessels and cause paralysis.

"There is no difficulty in getting divers for [illegible] depths. Most of our men are British navy men, [illegible] Mediterranean [illegible] for the [illegible] work.

"For his work in raising the specie from the wreck of the Alaska XII Alexander Lambert received five per cent of the [illegible] recovered—$17,500—in addition to his pay of $150 a week.

LARGEST ZOO ELEPHANT DEAD

Empress, Thirty-Eight Years In Zoo at Philadelphia, Broke Leg in Fall.

Philadelphia.— Empress, said to have been the largest female elephant in captivity and the zoo's guest host for 38 years, died here.

Death was caused by the fact that she recently broke a leg while trying to take a bath in the pool. An accident the big pachyderm was unable to raise her front feet until the block and tackle were employed to lift her, attending physicians said. After several ineffectual attempts had been made to raise the animal, Director Long decided to end her misery. The accident and death will be the subject matter of funeral services to be mourned.

IN PRISON HIS FATHER BUILT

Convicted Man Says He Knows That the Work Is Exceedingly Strong.

Leavenworth, Kan.—Arthur Schmidt, fifty years old, was imprisoned in the penitentiary here for a crime of violation of the state prohibition law.

When he arrived Schmidt said he had not superintended the erection of the walls which were to deprive him of his liberty. He said he frequently had heard his father speak of the walls as the best masonry in the country.
