WIN A SPECIAL PRIZE!

Two beautiful, silver handled umbrellas will be awarded to the Lady and Gentleman contestants who take in the largest amount of money on subscriptions up to Midnight,

SATURDAY, JANUARY 17th,

FIRST GRAND PRIZE

A 1914 FIVE PASSENGER FORD TOURING CAR

Purchased of THE CARLISLE AUTO CO. "THE FORD MEN"

TEN PER CENT CASH COMMISSION to every candidate who does not win a prize, providing they make a cash report each week. You simply can't lose.

HOW PRIZES WILL BE GIVEN

The Ford five passenger touring car will be given to the candidate who has the largest number of votes at the close of the contest; the other prizes will be awarded in their order to the candidates having the largest number of votes. All who fail to win a prize and who make a cash report each week of the contest will receive ten per cent of the amount turned in by them. The contest will last about eight weeks.

HOW TO SECURE VOTES

Votes may be secured by getting people to subscribe or pay their subscription accounts to the Mercury and by collecting the free coupons good for fifty votes which appear in the Mercury. Any cash subscription to the Mercury will count votes, whether it is a new subscriber or the payment of an old subscription account. Subscriptions from any place will count. Candidates are not restricted to any certain field, but may get subscriptions any place they wish, however, it would be wise to take care of your own territory first.

The price of the Mercury is $1.00 a year. Votes on subscriptions will be given in accordance with the Schedule which appears below. Candidates will be furnished with receipt books and supplies on request, and we will also give each candidate a list of our subscribers in any field.

HOW TO START IN THE CONTEST

If your nomination has not yet been sent in, fill one out and send it to the Contest Manager, care the Mercury. As soon as you are nominated you will be credited with 5,000 votes and we will send you the necessary supplies. Call on your friends and acquaintances and get their subscription or their promise To give it to you, and have them save the free coupons good for fifty votes which will appear in the Mercury for a short time. Just a little time spent will soon convince you that it is an easy matter to secure thousands of votes. Try two or three weeks and see how you get along. We know from experience that only about ten per cent of those nominated will start at all, and the list of workers will eventually simmer down to 6 or 8 who are running for the automobile.

CONTEST RULES AND PLANS

The Contest Manager reserves the right to decline any nomination.

No employee of the Mercury will be allowed to compete in the contest however, correspondents to the paper are eligible.

A free ballot will be found in several issues of the Mercury, and may be cast at any time prior to the date thereon.

A number of disinterested Nicholas cottymen will make the final count and award the prizes to the fortunate candidates.

Votes may be procured by turning in cash subscriptions to the Mercury, and by clipping the free ballot from the paper. To enter the name of a friend fill out the nomination blank and mail it to Contest Manager for the Mercury. They will then be credited with 5,000 votes.

All questions of dispute and interpretation of the rules will be settled by the Contest Manager.

Receipt books, subscription report blanks and all supplies will be furnished candidates without charge and sample copies will be mailed to prospective subscribers upon request of the members. In fact, the Contest anager will do all he can to help each candidate. Cash subscriptions on which votes are to be issued must be turned in to the Contest Department before votes are cast thereon.

In case of a tie between two or more candidates the prize or prizes tied for will be awarded jointly. All candidates who work to the close of the contest, making a cash report each week, and who do not win a prize will receive ten per cent commission on all money turned in by them.

Votes are not transferable after having been issued. Every subscription paid into the office during the contest entitles the subscriber to votes according to schedule printed in this issue.

ESTABLISHED 1867--OLDEST NEWSPAPER IN NICHOLAS COUNTY

VOL. XLIX — CARLISLE, NICHOLAS COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 15, 1914 — EIGHT PAGES--NO 3

COMMENT

We are indebted to Mr. Reuben Hutchcraft, the able young Representative from Bourbon, for his kindness in forwarding to the MERCURY the following summary of a beautiful tribute paid the memory of the late Green R. Keller:

At the convening of the House of Representatives at Frankfort, Ky., on Tuesday, January 6th, 1914, Mr. James E. Stone, Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives during the session of the General Assembly of 1912, whose duty it was to call the House to order and preside during its organization, in the absence of remarks to the members paid the following tribute To the memory of the late Green Remington Keller:

"Gentlemen of the House of Representatives:

There is another duty that devolves upon me. I could not shun it if I would and I would not if I could.

Amid the scenes just preceding the opening of this General Assembly, and especially here today, there is absent one familiar face and form. I have vainly sought to find it and yet I have caught myself still hunting for it. To those who knew the party of whom I am about to speak, and who know me, it is useless to say that I refer to the late Green R. Keller—the man I loved as a friend and who loved me. They tell me he is dead. It is not true. Men like him can never die.

He was the one friend upon whose arm I could always lean, and who never failed to come to me when he felt that he needed advice or encouragement. He never had a secret that he was unwilling to confide in me and such confidence had in him that nothing was so sacred that I was not willing to confide in him.

I first met Mr. Keller when he came to Frankfort as Representative from the County of Bourbon at the session of 1878. He served in the same capacity during the session of 1880. During those sessions I was acting as copyist to the Clerk of the House. We became attached to each other at once and the friendship then begun continued between us unbroken, unmarred, until his final departure—that friendship continued to grow until it ripened into an intense affection.

We were in adjacent and conscientious legislator—always at the post of duty. Few were the members ever missed fewer votes or roll calls. His affable, cheery disposition made him many friends, and while he may have at times been compelled to differ with others he had no enemies. He was proverbial as a faith- ful and true friend as a woman's and yet he was brave and courageous as a Spartan. As every brave person does, he loved his friends and in the same breath gave the utmost consideration to his opponents, and would never be truthfully charged with being insincere or untrue to him. He loved the truth and his honor was the jewel that he faithfully guarded.

His service as a soldier in General Morgan's command, although but a boy of fifteen when he enlisted, was as praise-worthy as his service as a legislator and legislative clerk.

As a newspaper man he was aggressive and his writings full of spicy good humor and force. His great charm was his original wit bright and cheery. He never cast a cloud or shade that had a poisoned point to leave behind a troubling wound. His motto was,

"Let me but live my life from year to year
With forward face and unreluctant peer,
Not harrying to, nor turning from the ill
But meeting for things that dis- agree,
In the dim past, nor holding back in fear
From what the future veils; but with a whole
And happy heart that pays its toll
To Youth and Age, and Love, and sometimes with cheer.

A few years ago he was conscious that he was stricken with a fatal disease and that the hand of the inevitable was laid upon him. He was not afraid. His suffering was at times intense, but during it all he never lost his cheerfulness and when the last solmnone came in September 1912 "He lay him down in peace to rest."

Gen. S. B. Buckner Dies At His Home In Hart County

General Simon Bolivar Buckner, last surviving lieutenant general of the Confederate army, died at his home, "Glen Lily," in Hart County, near Munfordville, at 8:30 o'clock last Thursday night.

Infirmities of age, which had impaired his health, though not his spirit, during the last year or more, caused his death. For days he had been unconscious.

General Simon Bolivar Buckner was born on a farm near Munfordville, Hart County Kentucky, April 1, 1823, and was, therefore, in the ninety-first year of his age. He was the son of Hon. Aylett Hartswell and Elizabeth Ann (Morehead) Buckner.

General Buckner was graduated from West Point in 1844, and was immediately assigned as a second lieutenant in the Second United Infantry. From 1845 to 1846 he was assistant instructor in ethics at West Point and on May 9, 1846, was transferred to the Sixth United States Infantry and he was regimental quartermaster from August 9 to December 12, 1847. On August 20, 1847, General Buckner was invetted first lieutenant "for gallant and meritorious conduct" at the battle of Churubusco, one of the important conflicts of the Mexican War, and on September 8, 1847, was made a captain in the same regiment for gallantry at the battle of Molino del Rey. For two years (1848-1850) Captain Buckner was assistant instructor of infantry tactics at West Point and on the last day of December, 1853, he was made a first lieutenant of tatics at the same place.

Captain Buckner resigned from the United States army March 26, 1858, and returned to his former home in Hart County. From 1860 to 1861 he was inspector-general of Kentucky. In September, 1861, General Buckner was brevetted brigadier-general in the Confederate army. From February to August, 1862, he was a prisoner of war and in the following year he was made major general.

In September, 1864, General Buckner achieved his highest distinction in the service of the Southern army when he was promoted a lieutenant general. General Buckner married Miss Delia Claiborne, of Richmond, Va., in 1886, and she survives him. The year after his marriage General Buckner was elected Governor of Kentucky, and was defeated by John G. Carlisle. General Buckner was a member of the Kentucky constitutional convention from Hart County, which sat at Frankfort in 1891, and which framed the fourth and present constitution of Kentucky. General Buckner's last appearance in public life was in 1896, when he made the race on the Gold Democratic ticket for Vice President of the United States. John M. Palmer, a native of Kentucky, who had been Governor and United States Senator from Illinois made the race for President on the ticket with General Buckner.

A special train, bearing the body of General Buckner, left Louisville at 2:30 o'clock Saturday morning for Frankfort. The body was laid to rest in the State cemetery Saturday afternoon. Among the active and honorary pall bearers were many of the most prominent men in the State, including Governor McCreary, Congressman Ben Johnson, General Basil Duke, Mr. Bruce Haldeman, Col. W. B. Haldeman, Mr. Richard W. Knott, Lieut.-Governor McDermott, Gen. John B. Castleman, Col. E. Polk Johnson and others.

Hon. W. J. Fields Visits Friends In Carlisle

Congressman W. J. Fields was the guest of Mr. A. B. Tilton here Wednesday night.

Mr. Fields was a caller at the Mercury office Thursday, and stated that he was enjoying the rest of the long vacation after the strenuous work of the past few months.

Congressman Fields will be a candidate for re-election from this district. There has been some talk of an opposition candidate, but as yet no one has announced.

Mr. Fields left Carlisle on the afternoon train Thursday.

Resolutions complimentary to the retiring county officers were adopted.

Noted Lecturer To Speak Here Thursday

The following letter has been received here:

Louisville, Ky. Jan. 3, 1914.

Mr. W. E. Darragh,
Carlisle, Kentucky.

Dear Brother Darragh:

I am planning a tour that would bring me to Carlisle on January 22, when I would like to have as large a meeting as possible in the evening and give an account of my trip to the World's Sunday School Convention at Zurich, last July. Please let me know at once if you can arrange such a meeting.

Cordially yours,
GEO. A. JOFLIN,
General Sec'y.

Mr. Darragh has arranged for this meeting to be held at the Presbyterian Church next Thursday evening. The Kentucky Sunday School Association is an inter-denominational organization and a representative audience from all of the local churches it is expected will greet the speaker. Rev. Joplin is General Secretary of the K.S.A. and his account of the World's Sunday School Convention at Zurich will prove highly interesting.

Consumption Takes 350 People Every Day in the United States and the surprising truth is that most cases are preventable with timely, intelligent treatment.

These appalling facts should warn us that after sickness, colds, overwork or any other drains upon strength, Scott's Emulsion should be promptly and regularly used because tubercular germs thrive only in a weakened system.

The tested and proven value of Scott's Emulsion is recognized by the greatest specialists because its medical nourishment assimilates quickly to build healthy tissue; aids in the development of active, life-sustaining blood corpuscles; strengthens the lungs and builds physical force without reaction. Scott's Emulsion is used in tuberculosis camps because of its rare body-building, blood-making properties and because it contains no alcohol or habit-forming drug. Be sure to insist on Scott's.

GREAT INTEREST BEING TAKEN IN OUR CONTEST

VOTES COMING IN BY THOUSANDS

Contestants All Doing Fair Work But Could Be Better. Big Increase Of Standings Expected This Week On Account Of Specials. Read The Articles Below And "Get Busy"

Yes, the people all over the county are talking about it. The MERCURY'S big Auto contest is the subject of conversation almost every place you can go. Every-one is interested and a great many have already picked their favorites and are helping them along. This widespread interest can be used to great advantage by the contestants because everyone is getting the spirit and is willing to help with their subscription. Make it a point to see everyone, contestants, and be sure that you don't pass anyone up, because if you do, some other candidate is very likely to get there ahead of you —Consider everyone a possible subscriber to the MERCURY and ask them all.

A great many people have asked, "How can the MERCURY afford to give away such expensive prizes in a short time?" Here is the answer; The MERCURY wishes to have a larger circulation than they have at present and they are willing to go to this extent to get it.

Now don't get the idea that we are going to lose any money on this proposition, because we are not. The fact is, we are going to make money on it. This contest is a benefit to everyone concerned. We are going to make money and the contestants are going to profit by it, and the public is going to be benefitted. The public will be benefitted in this way: The Mercury is and always has been a paper which deals largely with the doings of the county and is a very important factor in the development and uplift of Carlisle and Nicholas county. Now, it stands to reason that with an increased circulation and increased facilities, we will be able to do a great deal more along those lines than has ever been done before. If you are a lover of Carlisle or Nicholas county right now is the time to show your loyalty by helping along our contest. If you are not already a subscriber to the MERCURY, you should be, and if you are a subscriber and your subscription is not paid a year in advance you should see to it at once. Pick out someone in the contest and help them along with your subscription. If your name appears on the list of candidates below and you haven't started your campaign which will make you the winner of that Ford Auto, do so at once, at least 98 and say that you are going to run in the contest and then get busy and see that you haven't been nominated as yet, fill out the nomination blank found in our advertisement on another page of this issue and send it in to us immediately and we will send you the necessary supplies at once.

The work which has been done so far in the contest is very good but we feel sure that it could be a great deal better. Those who have started their campaign are making pretty good showings. There are quite a number of candidates who have not done anything for themselves as yet but their friends have been helping them along with coupons and subscriptions. If you are one of those few who are depending on your friends, show them that you appreciate their help and support by getting out and doing something for yourself. Don't let them do it all for you.

You will notice that the list of candidates is simmering down quite a little but there are still a very great many on the list whom we haven't heard from, so we are obliged to keep the contest until we know definitely whether they are going to try for the Auto or not. If you are one of those people we would appreciate it very much if you would let us know your intentions as soon as possible. The list as here published is a representative as there are only a few who will ever start. It is plain to be seen that those who start now and keep up a good pace all through the contest will have a great advantage over those who start late. NOW is the time to start. Make up your mind right now what you are going to do and let us know your intentions.

Below is the list of candidates and their standings up to Monday, January 12th.
