The 49th annual convention of the Kentucky Sunday School Association opened at Lexington Tuesday night.

Former Governor, Augustus E. Willson, will speak at Paris this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

All of the indictments against Secretary of State, Crecelius Stanley were dropped on motion of the Commonwealth Attorney, Vaden Bradley, on account of insufficient evidence being shown.

A search of the woods between the mountains of Montana for John D. Criscraft, formerly of Bourbon county, who was lost in the while hunting, has proved futile.

Myers

Russell Matten has gone to Texas to locate.

Elmer Myers and wife, of Paris and Marion and Charlie Myers, of Indianapolis, Ind., have been visiting their parents, Bruce Myers and wife, the past week.

Ernest Mynear of Lexington is home in Paxton, Ill., last Wednesday.

Ruth Dayton, of Prescott Valley, visited Mrs. Wm. Hall's children Wednesday.

Wm. Rochester and wife of Fort Worth, Texas, are visiting his brother-in-law, Wm. Hall, and family.

Mrs. Rochester and Mrs. Hall are sisters of Mrs. Richard Clay.

Mrs. William Kane and little daughter, Louise, of Newton, are visiting her father, A. P. Dayton, Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. A. A. Dale and children Helen and George, of Hebron, are day for Gilson, Ill., to spend several weeks with Mr. Dale's mother.

Pattie Bee Rochester entertained a number of her little friends Saturday, it being her 5th birthday.

Mrs. Emma D. Yoe and two children visited her sister, Mrs. Marvin Shrout, at Moorland, Monday.

Mrs. Cleveland Blake, of Lockport, visited Mrs. L. S. Eldridge Monday.

Mrs. D. Hite has returned home after a visit of several weeks with relatives at Jessamine, Georgetown and Lexington.

Wednesday I spent the day at the Locust Grove school and found most excellent work being done. Children well disciplined, excellent system and good instruction. This district, through School Improvement League, has supplied its school with everything it needs, and the result is shown in door and window decorations. Miss Agnes Highland is teaching her fourth term there and no one only has to pay that school a visit to see that it pays. Mrs. Taylor (nee Agnes Highland) is a most efficient and agreeable lady
