

CELL-HOUSE AT FRANKFORT PRISON

IN WORST CONDITION THEY EVER SEEN, MISSOURI COMMISSIONERS ANNOUNCE.

CONTRACT SYSTEM DECLARED

Head of Prison Commission Leaves For New York City After Investigating Contract System.

Frankfort, Mo., Jan. 21.—The Missouri State Penitentiary at Frankfort, Mo., is in the worst condition they ever saw, Missouri commissioners announced today.

The commissioners, who are headed by Governor B. H. Linn, left Frankfort after a three-day investigation of the prison system.

The report states that the prison is in a state of "utter chaos" and that the contract system, which has been in operation for many years, is the cause of the trouble.

The commissioners declared that the contract system is "entirely unworkable" and that it is necessary to "abolish it at once."

The report also states that the prison is "overcrowded" and that the "sanitary conditions are deplorable."

The commissioners are now in New York City, where they will meet with the head of the prison commission to discuss the report.

ILLINOIS DRYS WIN

VOTERS OF TOWN GUEST SALOONS IN WOMEN ELECTIONS HELD THROUGHOUT STATE.

200 TOWNSHIPS SET WEST

Chicago, Jan. 21.—Illinois again leads the nation in the number of women voters in town elections held throughout the state.

The state board of election commissioners announced today that 200 townships in the west had voted in the recent elections.

The board stated that the turnout was "unusually high" and that the women voters were "well informed" on the issues.

The board also announced that the results of the elections were "in favor of the prohibitionists."

The board is now in the process of counting the votes and will announce the final results in a few days.
