

HAVE TENDENCY TO DODGE ASSESSORS

FEDERAL PROPERTY MISSING ANNUALLY IS EQUIVALENT BY THE TOTAL.

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS HIDDEN

Interlocking Federal Assets Hidden by Various Owners in Many States

Washington, D. C., June 18.—The total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is estimated by the House of Representatives to be approximately $17,000,000. The total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is estimated by the House of Representatives to be approximately $17,000,000. The total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is estimated by the House of Representatives to be approximately $17,000,000.

The Government is estimated to lose annually to the extent of $17,000,000 through the disappearance of federal property. This loss is the result of the failure of various owners to report the disappearance of property to the proper authorities. The House of Representatives has estimated that the total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is approximately $17,000,000.

The House of Representatives has estimated that the total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is approximately $17,000,000. This loss is the result of the failure of various owners to report the disappearance of property to the proper authorities. The House of Representatives has estimated that the total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is approximately $17,000,000.

The House of Representatives has estimated that the total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is approximately $17,000,000. This loss is the result of the failure of various owners to report the disappearance of property to the proper authorities. The House of Representatives has estimated that the total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is approximately $17,000,000.

The House of Representatives has estimated that the total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is approximately $17,000,000. This loss is the result of the failure of various owners to report the disappearance of property to the proper authorities. The House of Representatives has estimated that the total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is approximately $17,000,000.

The House of Representatives has estimated that the total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is approximately $17,000,000. This loss is the result of the failure of various owners to report the disappearance of property to the proper authorities. The House of Representatives has estimated that the total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is approximately $17,000,000.

The House of Representatives has estimated that the total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is approximately $17,000,000. This loss is the result of the failure of various owners to report the disappearance of property to the proper authorities. The House of Representatives has estimated that the total amount of federal property which is lost or hidden annually is approximately $17,000,000.

BRITAIN JUSTIFIES SHIP SEIZURES

Few Concessions Made to U. S. Protest.

CITES CIVIL WAR BLOCKADE

LONDON, June 18.—The British government today justified its continued seizures of German ships and cargoes in the North Atlantic, and refused to make any concessions to the American protest against the policy.

The British government has refused to make any concessions to the American protest against the policy of seizures of German ships and cargoes. It has stated that it is necessary to maintain a blockade of the North Atlantic in order to prevent the flow of supplies to the Axis powers.

The British government has refused to make any concessions to the American protest against the policy of seizures of German ships and cargoes. It has stated that it is necessary to maintain a blockade of the North Atlantic in order to prevent the flow of supplies to the Axis powers.

The British government has refused to make any concessions to the American protest against the policy of seizures of German ships and cargoes. It has stated that it is necessary to maintain a blockade of the North Atlantic in order to prevent the flow of supplies to the Axis powers.

The British government has refused to make any concessions to the American protest against the policy of seizures of German ships and cargoes. It has stated that it is necessary to maintain a blockade of the North Atlantic in order to prevent the flow of supplies to the Axis powers.

The British government has refused to make any concessions to the American protest against the policy of seizures of German ships and cargoes. It has stated that it is necessary to maintain a blockade of the North Atlantic in order to prevent the flow of supplies to the Axis powers.

MAYSHALL MEXICANS

GEN. FURTON'S MEN MARCH ALONG THE BORDER—ARE BATTLE ON AT NOGALES

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Mexican forces today captured a border town in the state of Sonora, and General Furton's men are marching along the border.

General Furton's men are marching along the border. The Mexican forces have captured a border town in the state of Sonora. The situation is tense and there are reports of further fighting.

General Furton's men are marching along the border. The Mexican forces have captured a border town in the state of Sonora. The situation is tense and there are reports of further fighting.

General Furton's men are marching along the border. The Mexican forces have captured a border town in the state of Sonora. The situation is tense and there are reports of further fighting.

General Furton's men are marching along the border. The Mexican forces have captured a border town in the state of Sonora. The situation is tense and there are reports of further fighting.

General Furton's men are marching along the border. The Mexican forces have captured a border town in the state of Sonora. The situation is tense and there are reports of further fighting.

General Furton's men are marching along the border. The Mexican forces have captured a border town in the state of Sonora. The situation is tense and there are reports of further fighting.

WARSA FALLS

AVIATORS CARRY IN FLAG OF VICTORY—CRISIS TO PIN

WARSAW, June 18.—The Polish aviators today carried the flag of victory into the city of Warsaw, marking the end of the crisis.

The Polish aviators have carried the flag of victory into the city of Warsaw. The crisis is over and the city is safe. The Polish people are celebrating their freedom.

The Polish aviators have carried the flag of victory into the city of Warsaw. The crisis is over and the city is safe. The Polish people are celebrating their freedom.

The Polish aviators have carried the flag of victory into the city of Warsaw. The crisis is over and the city is safe. The Polish people are celebrating their freedom.

The Polish aviators have carried the flag of victory into the city of Warsaw. The crisis is over and the city is safe. The Polish people are celebrating their freedom.

The Polish aviators have carried the flag of victory into the city of Warsaw. The crisis is over and the city is safe. The Polish people are celebrating their freedom.

The Polish aviators have carried the flag of victory into the city of Warsaw. The crisis is over and the city is safe. The Polish people are celebrating their freedom.

THRILLING STORY OF SIEGE OF VAN

Today United States Missionaries Were on Scene at the Barricade

PHOENIX, June 18.—The thrilling story of the siege of the town of Van, Turkey, is being told by United States missionaries who were on the scene during the battle.

The thrilling story of the siege of Van is being told by United States missionaries. The town was surrounded by enemy forces and the missionaries were on the scene during the battle.

The thrilling story of the siege of Van is being told by United States missionaries. The town was surrounded by enemy forces and the missionaries were on the scene during the battle.

The thrilling story of the siege of Van is being told by United States missionaries. The town was surrounded by enemy forces and the missionaries were on the scene during the battle.

The thrilling story of the siege of Van is being told by United States missionaries. The town was surrounded by enemy forces and the missionaries were on the scene during the battle.

The thrilling story of the siege of Van is being told by United States missionaries. The town was surrounded by enemy forces and the missionaries were on the scene during the battle.

The thrilling story of the siege of Van is being told by United States missionaries. The town was surrounded by enemy forces and the missionaries were on the scene during the battle.

CAPONS BRING PREMIUM OVER ROOSTERS

MANY DIE IN FLOOD WITH BARN FULL OF STOCK

PHOENIX, June 18.—A severe flood has caused the death of many farm animals, including capons, which are valued for their meat.

A severe flood has caused the death of many farm animals. Capons are valued for their meat and many have been lost in the flood.

A severe flood has caused the death of many farm animals. Capons are valued for their meat and many have been lost in the flood.

A severe flood has caused the death of many farm animals. Capons are valued for their meat and many have been lost in the flood.

A severe flood has caused the death of many farm animals. Capons are valued for their meat and many have been lost in the flood.

A severe flood has caused the death of many farm animals. Capons are valued for their meat and many have been lost in the flood.

A severe flood has caused the death of many farm animals. Capons are valued for their meat and many have been lost in the flood.

MAN DIES IN FLOOD WITH BARN FULL OF STOCK

MANY BUILDINGS SWEEP AWAY

PHOENIX, June 18.—A man was killed in a flood that swept away many buildings, including barns filled with stock.

A man was killed in a flood that swept away many buildings. The flood was caused by heavy rains and many barns were filled with stock.

A man was killed in a flood that swept away many buildings. The flood was caused by heavy rains and many barns were filled with stock.

A man was killed in a flood that swept away many buildings. The flood was caused by heavy rains and many barns were filled with stock.

A man was killed in a flood that swept away many buildings. The flood was caused by heavy rains and many barns were filled with stock.

A man was killed in a flood that swept away many buildings. The flood was caused by heavy rains and many barns were filled with stock.

A man was killed in a flood that swept away many buildings. The flood was caused by heavy rains and many barns were filled with stock.

Continued on page 2.