The CZAR'S SPY

The Mystery of a Silent Love

By Chevalier WILLIAM LE QUEUX

AUTHOR of "THE CLOSED DOOR," ETC.

ILLUSTRATIONS by C. D. RHODES

COPYRIGHT BY THE SHORT ST PUBLISHING CO.

SYNOPSIS.

Gordon Gregg, dining aboard with Herr Mr. the czar's fancy owner, receives a wire from a photograph of a young girl, Miss Heath, who is in danger in Russia. The police find that the girl is a spy for the Zubra among a false one. In Gregg's room at the hotel he finds a letter from a former servant, Olga, who is in Dandrino Gregg meets Maria Ivanovitch, a beautiful girl, who gives her name as Elsa Heath. Gregg sees a copy of the letter which Elsa received from Olga, telling her that the czar is dead and Russia is ruined. Gregg finds Elsa Lachmanova fled from Hyton Chapel, and Elsa tells him that she is a spy for the czar. Gregg is with the police still at large. Gregg decides to escape with Elsa to Finland, and that she is to be his wife. Gregg and Elsa leave for Finland and find that the czar is not dead. Gregg finds that his enemy is Baron Georg Sedlitz