

ANNUAL MEETING STATE BANKERS

RECEPTION GIVEN BY THE GOVERNOR AT A FEATURING CONVENTION

MANY CITIES REPRESENTED

Between Six and Seven Hundred Members Were Expected at Session at Franklin

(Special Correspondent's Column) President of reception for State Bankers at the Governor's mansion, here, will see the largest gathering of bankers in the history of the state since the late war. The convention will be held at the State Hotel, Franklin, from September 10 to 12. It is the largest convention of its kind in the South, and is expected to attract a record number of visitors from other parts of the country.

The program has been completed in all respects, and the convention will be held at the State Hotel, Franklin, from September 10 to 12. It is the largest convention of its kind in the South, and is expected to attract a record number of visitors from other parts of the country.

Another big matter of importance is the proposed merger of the State Bank and Trust Co. with the State Bank and Trust Co. of North Carolina. This merger is expected to result in a larger and more efficient institution.

The State Bank and Trust Co. of North Carolina is one of the largest banks in the South. It has a long and successful history, and is expected to continue to grow and prosper.
