

The BAL of Life

of GEORGE RANDOLPH CHESTER and LILLIAN CHESTER

ILLUSTRATED BY C.D. RHODES

SYNOPSIS: At the age of 10, the author, George Randolph Chester, was afflicted with a severe case of rheumatism. He was unable to walk and his condition was so bad that he was confined to his bed for months. His mother, Lillian Chester, was a woman of great faith and courage. She believed that her son would be cured if he could only get the "BAL" of life. She found this in the form of a book, "The BAL of Life," which she read to her son every night. The book contained stories of great men and women who had overcome great hardships. The author's condition improved and he was able to walk again. He became a successful writer and his books are read all over the world.
