Tobacco Pouring Into Carlisle This Week

The tobacco market opened up in earnest this week and on Monday there were half a million pounds of the weed on the floors of the three warehouses. The price, which has taken a decided jump since the holidays also continues strong, and it looks good now for a record season on the local markets. Sales opened Monday at Burley and were continued at the Farmers house:

BURLEY—36,000 pounds sold at an average of $9.50. Some average sales:

Grower	Pounds	Av.
Jas. Parsons	2800	$10.05

Former Bourbon Woman Files Suit For Divorce From Japanese Husband

Mrs. Olivia Buckner Minakichi filed suit in the Bourbon circuit court, Saturday, from her husband, Yotaka Minakuchi. In her petition, Mrs. Minakichi charges that her husband has habitually behaved toward her for the past few years in a cruel and inhuman manner; that he had obtained possession of her property, amounting to $50,000, shortly after their marriage and has squandered it. The petition also states that the mother of the plaintiff, Mrs. Rose Buckner has been the plaintiff's sole means of support for years. Tolleth & Whitley are attorneys for the plaintiff, Judge Harmon Hill is attorney for Mr. Minakuchi, and it is understood that a general denial of the allegations of the plaintiff will be filed. Mr. Minakuchi is now said to be preaching in Memphis, Tenn." Mrs. Minakuchi also asks for the custody of her son. Mr and Mrs Minakuchi were married in Carlisle on July 9, 1908. She met her husband when he was a student in Kentucky (Transylvania) University, he having been entertained at her father's home on Sunday that he went to preach at the old Cane Ridge Church
