MAKES PICTURES OUT OF RAGS

Wonderful Work Done by Kansas Woman Who Is Paralyzed.

Mrs. Lucy Work Hobbs of Topeka, Kan., is paralyzed from the waist down, but she has found a way to make her fingers do the work of her feet. She models in clay, paints and carves in wood, and has made a number of pictures of rags. Her masterpiece is a picture of Abraham Lincoln, which she has made entirely of rags. It is a remarkable likeness of the martyred president, and Mrs. Hobbs has received many letters of praise for her work.

"TRAIN LAWYERS."

SOME NEED IT

DR. EUCLID B. ROGERS

He says: I believe in an educational training. That character is the highest kind and finest culture. That a training wonderful. That a man is a man and woman, a woman, and clay and soul, and the best work. And don't forget that the intellectual treasure for which you are striving is what he is to do, not what he is to be. He is to be educated as he is to be, to shine about as well as shoes or run a bank or go to congress, but because he is a man.

He says there is something besides the physical man that needs a training, that dignity of character, poise, mental opposure. He doesn't believe in a man to feed and house the mind and mind and the real, true, exterior side part of a man outside to shower and shower.

Mr. Rogers was admitted to the bar in Albany, N. Y. He was educated at Colgate University. He was Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of F. & A. M. in 1907 and has served as chaplain of the state senate.

He has a number of lectures, the chief of which are "A Knife or a Life," "America's Greatest Jew," and the "Crusade of Intellectual."

He will deliver one of these at our Chautauqua on the fourth day.

THE CARLISLE MERCURY.

ESTABLISHED 1867--OLDEST NEWSPAPER IN NICHOLAS COUNTY

VOL. I. CARLISLE, NICHOLAS COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, AUG 5, 1915 EIGHT PAGES—NO 3

COMMENT

Day after tomorrow and it will all be over and we can begin to take interest in the war news for a breathing spell. It has been a hard campaign, not without bitterness and personalities with which much Republican thunder may be manufactured in November. And the Republicans are in better position to make use of thunder in Kentucky than for some years. Wherever wins the Democratic nomination on Saturday will have a fight on his hands in November; there will be no waiting into office on flowery beds of ease, and that had as well be faced. Talk of a Republican split on the liquor question strikes us as unreasonable, to say the least. They may talk of bolting, but when November comes we'll wager ever mother's son of them will be found voting for Edwin P. Morrow and the rest of the ticket.

We believe there will be some surprises in the State race Saturday, coming out of the larger cities of the Commonwealth.

We wouldn't be at all certain that the pre-primary polls on vote as the prognosticators believe. It is a strange race this year, with strange and apparently incomprehensible alignments, most of which may be attributed to the question of State-wide prohibition. Politics makes strange bed-fellows and the introduction of the liquor question into politics makes downright "queer" ones.

THE MERCURY hopes that the Democrats of Nicholas will give W. P. Walton, candidate for Secretary of State, a rousing good vote. It isn't often one has a chance to vote for a man so admirably suited for the office we seek. We KNOW and everyone else who is acquainted with Colonel Walton know that he is a good Democrat, a Christian gentleman, a plain-spoken, straightforward and true man. We KNOW that if he is chosen for this, one of the most important offices in the gift of the people of the Commonwealth, he will serve his party and his State With distinction and with a conscientious and thorough attention to the duties of Secretary of State. He will wear no man's collar and woe betide the man or corporation that attempts to make a tool of him. He is an able man and his record is as clean as a hound's tooth, and we have no fear that the citizens of Nicholas will honor him with their vote on Saturday.

No one regrets more than the editor of THE MERCURY that Will Ardery, the agreeable and able editor of the Paris Democrat, has left the country newspaper field to cast his lot among the cows and chickens. What is the life," we'll admit, but when one brought to the prosaic columns of a country newspaper a wit so refreshing and pen so able, we fain would have him stay amongst us. So, au revoir, William, and not farewell. P. S. Don't forget, William, in case of war with Germany, Jim Allen's wine cellar for ours.

Editors are a rule are kind hearted and liberal. An exchange tells of a subscriber who died and left a fourteen years subscription unpaid. The editor appeared as the lid of the coffin was being screwed down and put in a linen duster, a thermometer, a palm leaf fan and a receipt for making ice.

Go gazel out at the soaking garden's flowers,
Be shivered at the drip, drip, dripping trees,
"Back to the fire!" said she. "A bas the showers!"
And "Vive the old brass fan's electric breeze."

Bosworth Withdraws At Last Moment.

State Auditor, Henry. M. Bosworth, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, withdrew from the race Monday night.

Mr. Bosworth made no statement as to whom he favored, but his brother and campaign manager, Clifford Bosworth, turned over his precinct organization to the Stanley workers, Monday night, according to the Louisville papers.

Bosworth's announcement is as follows:

"To the Democratic Voters of Kentucky: The race for the Democratic nomination for Governor of this great Commonwealth is rapidly drifting, has drifted, I might say, into a straight-out fight for the preservation of the county unit law as against the adoption of State-wide prohibition.

"I have, after taking council with friends, arrived at the conclusion that it is better that I sacrifice my personal ambition than to endanger the welfare of the party, which I love and desire to continue in power at Frankfort and at Washington.

"Therefore, I hereby withdraw from the contest for the nomination for Governor, and most respectfully solicit the honor you have thus bestowed upon me. It is this organization, coupled with my love of our party, that has prompted me to take this step, which I am constrained to believe may be a great stride in the direction of party unity and Democratic success in November. With the knowledge that thousands of you are anxious to endorse my faithful service in the interest of the people, especially my several years' endeavor to equalize the weight of taxation in this State and to compel the powerful corporations owning the railroads and other public service companies to pay their just proportion of the tax, I cannot refrain from saying that I gave been reluctant to take this step, but being so decided I now release all who were pledged to me to vote for whom they shall choose, hoping that it may eventualize to the best interest of the party.

"Thanking all my friends for their loyal support, I am,

"Very respectfully,

"H. M. BOSWORTH."

Smothers Must Die

Wallace Smothers, the negro who assaulted little Georgia Bond of Thompson Station on July 11, was found guilty and his punishment fixed at death in the electric chair by the jury which tried the case Wednesday. The jury was out only thirty minutes and the verdict met with the approval of several hundred people of the city and county who gathered to hear the evidence.

Commonwealth's Attorney B. A. Crutcher and County Attorney D. Tarvin prosecuted the negro who was defended by Attorneys G. S. Wycoff and J. A. Stacker-ford. Not a lawyer could be found in Winchester who would to defend the negro, but somehow had to do it, and Judge Benton appointed these gentlemen, who conducted the case in the best manner possible. Between the lines, of Carlisle, are the attorneys representing Nicholas county side of the question, and Officer Boyce, of Lexington, represent Chief Reagan, Chief Brown and Detective Donahue.

Two rewards were offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of murderers of Boyce, shortly after the discovery of the crime. The State offered $500 and the fiscal court of Nicholas added $500.

Some time after the finding of the mutilated body of Chirles Boyce on his own farm, four arrests were made in connection with the case by the officers of Nicholas county. Bud Thomas, Jan Thomas, Robert Fisher and Aman Harras were jailed at Carlisle, but the authorities could find no the guilt on any of the four nor could they obtain a confession.

Detective Donahue was called in from Louisville and for weeks he worked the case. After exhausting all four of the suspects he advised the release of Fisher and Marks and brought the Thomas negroes to Lexington and began to persuade them to tell what they knew of the tragedy.

Bud Thomas was interrogated for several hours one afternoon and several hours one afternoon and finally confessed his part in the killing. He said that his father, Jan Thomas, and fired the fatal shots. The confession was made in the presence of Chief Reagan and Chief Brown."

Mr. McFerran is very anxious that all of the pastors of the various churches in the county come to make this a real community meeting. He urges that old songs, as, "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing," "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," "On Happy Day," and a number of the good old fashioned songs be sung.

The Farmers Community Meeting have been held in Warren, Madison, Jefferson and Union counties and have greatly benefitted the farming, school and church interests. We are to be favored by one of these meetings and a number of speakers, and professional expert workers of national reputation will be here to assist us, then why not rally every man, woman and child in the county and make August 15, 16 and 17 three of the greatest days ever spent in Nicholas county. Programs, advertising posters and circulars will be distributed throughout the county this week.

Local Officials Claim Part Reward

Friday's Lexington Leader:

"Steps are being taken by Chief of Police J. J. Reagan, Chief of Detectives Malcolm Brown and Detective Donahue, of Louisville, to claim their share of the $500 reward offered for the capture of Dan and Jeff Thomas, negroes now serving terms in the State Reformatory for the murder of Chas. T. Boyce near Carlisle, October 22, 1914. Legal proceedings will be instituted in the Nicholas county courts when the September term opens, so it has stated today by an attorney.

The other claimants of the reward are Sheriff Parker and Constable Hutchings, of Nicholas county, and Malcolm Boyce, the son of C. T. Boyce, the murdered man. The Nicholas county men base their claim on the fact that they made the actual arrest of Jerry and Paul Thomas, while the Lexington police officers and Detective Donahue assert that they fixed the guilt on the Thomas negroes, brought them to Lexington and obtained a confession from Jerry Thomas. Between the lines, of Carlisle, are the attorneys representing the Nicholas county side of the question, and Officer Boyce, of Lexington, represent Chief Reagan, Chief Brown and Detective Donahue.

Two rewards were offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of murderers of Boyce, shortly after the discovery of the crime. The State offered $500 and the fiscal court of Nicholas added $500.

County School News

The teachers signed contracts last Saturday for a term of seven months school. The salary is much better than last year, but not as much as a large number of the Nicholas county teachers are worth. The per capita that year was $4.50 in our county; this year it is $5.25, which is only 60 cents more on the small sum we received last year, and yet an other month of school is added.

We have in Nicholas county 19 emergency districts, that is, with less than 50 children in the district. 9 of these districts having less than 30 children in the census, some as low as 25 and 20 pupils, so we are told that we have seven months and pay the teachers anything like a decent salary and have the emergency districts, the state fund has to be apportioned and then each teacher's salary has to be supplemented by the County Board out of the county fund. We have only 61 first class districts in the county and only two second class, all the rest being third class and emergency districts, yet there are only five second class examines in the county, all of the rest being third class. Some of the state certificates are life diplomas. This bit of information is important and should be known.

All schools, where buildings are completed, began Monday. We are unable as yet to report attendance.

Don't forget the Farmers Community meeting at Parks Hill, Aug 15, 16 and 17. It was in Louisville two days last week in the interest of the meeting and while there was a guest of John R. McFerran and family. A very much interested in the Farmers Community Meeting, Aug. 15, 16 and 17, and has the program committee busy securing excellent talent for all subjects of interest to the farmers, good speakers will be there to discuss the evening of alfalfa, cow peas, sweet clover, etc.

Speakers to discuss the soil and how to build it up.

Editor Spurgeon Bell, of the Falmouth Democrat, was in the city Monday and Tuesday with Mrs. Bell, who is visiting relatives here. Mr. Bell is making a splendid race for the democratic nomination for Secretary of State, and is receiving the support of the democratic editors of the state. He is a fine fellow and a good newspaper man.

Democratic Editors See Victory for Claude B. Terrell In Race for Nomination for State Treasurer In August Primary Election.

If there is one contest in the approaching Democratic State primary election about which the Democratic newspapers of Kentucky seem to be agreed it is that the Hon. Claude B. Terrell, of Trimble County, should and will be nominated for the office of State Treasurer. Mr. Terrell has made a runaway race of it from the day he entered the contest. His especial fitness for the office he is seeking has appealed to the Democratic editors of every section of Kentucky, and they have done much to mold the sentiment of their communities in his favor by informing the people as to the character of the man and his qualifications for public service. Herewith are quoted brief paragraphs taken from editorials of newspapers published in every section of Kentucky. It would require no less than two pages of a newspaper to publish in full these unsolicited words of commendation of Mr. Terrell and his candidacy:

The Calloway Times: He has served three terms in the Legislature, two of them as Speaker of the House, and has proved himself a man of ability and a splendid type of the country gentleman.

The Ballard County Advance: Mr. Terrell is a man of unquestioned ability, important office and will make a splendid one. He is a strong man and will be one of the most popular men in the State.

Hopkinsville Kentuckian: He is a substantial business man, and is held in high esteem by all who know him, and has many friends in this section of the State who will be glad to see him win.

The Princeton Leader: While here Mr. Terrell made a host of friends by his manly bearing and his genial manner. He is a man of ability and would be a very desirable incumbent of the office to which he has offered himself as a candidate.

Fulton Daily Leader: He is a staunch Democrat, is familiar with the public affairs of the State by virtue of his service in the Legislature for several years in the Legislature and is a man who has the confidence of the people of Kentucky. He is a splendid treasurer and guardian of the funds of any commonwealth.

Clinton Gazette: Mr. Terrell has made a reputation as a man who is to be depended upon to do exactly what he promises to do.

Mayfield Messenger: He is a great friend to education and a constant booster for good roads. With such an honest Treasurer the people can be assured that the affairs of the office will be conducted honestly and according to law.

Bowling Green Times-Journal: Mr. Terrell will add strength to the ticket and we predict that it is going to be trying to know that his nomination is assured.

Bowling Green News: The press of the State is practically unanimous for Mr. Terrell. He is a Democrat without blemish and an honorable incorruptible man and one who never has and never will use his political influence in advance of public duty.

Todd County Progress: Mr. Terrell strikes a note of intelligence in the campaign that is refreshing. He is experienced and has served in the legislature for two terms, and his nomination seems assured.

Henry County Local: His career has been prominent and he has the confidence of the sterling character of this voters of the State. Democrats will do well to remember him on election day.

Woodford Blue Grass Clipper: None of the candidates for State offices is more favorable mention. From every section of the state for some reports of the great favor with which his candidacy is received. Louisville Evening Post: Mr. Terrell is running on a record that seems invincible. His friends say the nomination is certain, and the honor will be most fitly and properly bestowed.

Kentucky Journal of Labor: Citizens of Kentucky should certainly appreciate his efforts to serve them and appreciate the fact that he is a splendid worker for the public good. He is honored with great success daily and his candidacy grows in public favor every day.

Boone County Recorder: His progressive ideas commend him to every good voter. He is a North District boy, and we are all for him.

Fairmont Pendleton: His great strength is where he is best known, and in the strongest evidence of a man's worth, and for this high office he is unexcelled.

Carrollton Democrat: All who know Claude Terrell like him. Trimble County is fated to have a representative among our state officials the coming four years.

Grant County News: There is no man in his acquaintance as a lawmaker and a faithful servant of the people, who is more honest with closed hands and a clear head. We have no doubt of his election.

Livingston Telegram: Evidences his ability where qualities him to efficiently discharge the duties of the office to which he aspires. Every county, which makes a strong appeal to.

Nelson Banner: The fight made by Claude B. Terrell for Treasurer and Claude B. Terrell will add glory along that line. Webster County vote for him will afford to support him.

Pembroke Journal: Terrell looks like a winner. He has the support of the leading newspapers of the state. His official positions he has served with commendable faithfulness.

Big Sandy News: The Eastern Kentucky man is receiving the support of citizens who wants clean men in important offices and will make any mistake in voting for him.

Hazel Green Herald: No Democrat can possibly make a mistake in voting for Terrell, for he has been tried in many positions of honor and trust and he has never been found wanting.

Robertson Advocate: He does not need politics to make him a statesman or blazed man. He is able to take care of the Treasurer's office, and he will carry this county.

Hazel Green Herald: He is widely known as a man of ability as a promoter of the good roads movement and a staunch Democrat. He is worthy of the support of any man who wants to place the right man in the right place.

Hazard Times: Democrats want men nominated that will bring strength to the ticket and Claude Terrell is one. Their will make an admirable candidate. Terrell for Treasurer.

Whitesburg Mountain Eagle: As State Treasurer he will be "at home," considers doing much good for his constituents he will be in part repaid by their support of him in the coming primary election.

Pike County News: A most excellent gentleman and fully qualified for the office he seeks.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED ABOUT PROHIBITION, THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC, AND GOVERNMENT

Published by the ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE OF KENTUCKY

Q. Will Prohibition Increase Our Kentucky State Taxes?

A. If all the property of the liquor business in Kentucky were completely destroyed and never have any more taxe paying ability, the state taxes would be increased only four cents per year on the $100, or 40 per cent on the $1,000, and 20 cents per cash, the price of one dish of ice cream every three months for each man woman and child of Kentucky. This would certainly not bankrupt many people.

Q. Would the State Really Suffer Financially From Prohibition.

A. State finances might be disturbed for a year or two until the adjustment could be made, but two or three years at most would put the state on a far better financial basis than it now is our saving from the reduced expense of trials and care of criminals, insane, paupers, and etc., would in a few years pay the entire public debt of Kentucky.

Q. What Does the Liquor Traffic Cost Kentucky?

A. The care of the feeble-minded, institute, the care of idiots and the maintenance of lunatic asylums is $817,818.72

The cost of maintaining the penitentiaries, house of reform and criminal prosecution each year is $596,778.27

A total of $1,354,596.99

A very moderate estimate of the percentage of this, caused by liquor is 80 per cent $1,083,667.00

Q. Is Regulation Better Than Prohibition?

A. No, it is everywhere evident that the laws for the regulation of the liquor traffic are violated as much as the Prohibition laws. It is a well known fact that there are more bootleggers and blind tigers in yet than in dry territory, and that most saloons become blind tigers out of legal hours. Regulation
