COMMENT

Now this man may not be waltz. He moves away, you get a card from Uncle Sam—'not yours.'

Descriptive song file of a Paris interurban coming down North Lexington, on Lexington. "The Canals Are Coming, Horrah! Horrah!"

A Baptist preacher, engaged in baptizing, at Shelbyville, Indiana, caught a bass which swam up his trousers leg and had the fish for supper. The Catholic Democrat says this good luck could have been a French white wine and cup of Bourbon county.

The court house clock took a rest on day last week. It held better now. It isn't much clock at any time. Again we renew our suggestion that it be discontinued and the tower made a hangar for airplanes, especially in view of the approaching war between the groe and the anti-gro.

Take it from us, notwithstanding the yamps of calmly hovers, and the probability of the position here, that Woodrow Wilson will be elected President of these United States in 1916. He will be "washed up" and gone by the time he gets to the job; and we take it that he will do the job.

What you will about Higby's automobile, the sedan value a stand of which time falls prove the value. His vigorous comment on hysterical Americans and the pan-German press, and his warning to them that their course was one of folly don't seem so hysterical in the light of recent events.

What to Paris: Across Salan's burning and winds the Farnas caravans; They faller not; they never blink; For camels wait eight days for drink; But, tell me, William, if you can, And of the subject are not chary, Though Bourbon is an "idiot," Who'd want to be a dromedary?
