THE CZAR'S SPY

By Chevalier William Le Queux. Will Entertain You.

This story we have secured and will soon be printed serially in this paper.

relates the international robberies and methods employed by the Russian secret service system, murders done by night on Scottish moors, with British consultation in Italy, straggling 'burgled,' with man traps in London and the rescue of a lady from the grimaces of the czar's fortress in Finland.

A narrative of adventure and mystery. It contains enough thrills to make it exciting. One sure to hold your interest to the very end. Watch for
