Locals.

98 If you are going away or someone is visiting you, or if anything happens, please advise us when you are going away or when you are entertaining.

Tonight—Thursday

A Paramount feature, "Kindling," featuring Charlotte Walker. A remarkable study of New York slums in 5 parts.

Friday, we will present the first episode of "The Girl and The Game," entitled "Those Who Dare With Death." This is the most thrilling, sensational serial ever produced. Every episode full of action. Don't fail to see the first episode.

Saturday, a Mutual Masterpicture entitled "The Seventh Sister," featuring Ernest Shendenson and Winnifred Kingston in 5 parts.

Monday, "The Runaway Flight," featuring Laura Hope Crews.

Tuesday, we will present "The Honorary," a V. L. S. E. production in 7 parts, featuring Robert Williams. Without footing, this is the most heart rending gripping drama ever shown on the screen. Don't miss it.

The newest feature in "The Girl and The Game" will be given away to night. Don't forget.

LYRIC THEATRE

Sunday is Horse Show Day

"The Girl and The Game," starts in the issue.

Boy Scouts that wear Sam Veach hat ties.

"The Girl and The Game," in The Mercury and at The Lyric.

I have Fertilizer for your tobacco beds. F. B. HENRY.

The Golden Rule Grocery has put on a delivery wagon and now delivery is prompt.

We have every style large small medium hats to suit every customer. MRS. H. T. MANN.

Buy Ice cream and save money at Harvey's Grocery, Main street and Depot alley.

Take stock of our window display of Oilcloth. You'll see just the style you want. J. P. TUNE & CO.

Sam H. Neeley has recently been appointed a Notary Public for Nicholas county by Governor Stanley.

Everyone feels and looks and prospers well. Tall phone 137, Harvey's Grocery. Next street and Depot alley.

"The Birth of A Nation" will be shown April 21 at Paris Grand Opera House.

Mrs. J. H. Pringle is holding a millinery opening at the hat on Webster avenue, recently purchased from Mrs. Chinch Dudley.

Just received new lot of Fox Hats. They are certainly very stylish. If you want a stylish hat come home to see us, they are to suit your taste in style.

MRS. H. T. MANN.

Mayor John Wise, Dr. Steel, W. A. Caywood and Sumner Suttle, of Mt. Sterling, were here Tuesday to look at the small engine belonging to the local fire department, with a view to purchasing it or some city.

Monday's Lexington Leader, in discussing the prospects for the Lexington base ball team, says: "The latest rumor to reach Howard Wells of the baseball world is that Jack Barbee, with the Jackson, ky., team, has signed as a free one. He was 11 and 11 in games.

It is rumored in our midst to merge the Mothers' Club and the Charmaqua Circle, local women's organizations, into a Woman's Club, which will be a member of the Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Weaver was appointed here to make the organization Monday night, but did not come. It is probable that some officer of the State Federation will be invited this week to talk for the purpose of inaugurating the club.

A spelling contest will be held between the members of the Christian and Methodist churches, at the Court House, Thursday evening, April 13. The words will be pronounced from the Old Blue Back Speller, but if the spelling of a word differs from Webster either will be counted correct. Admission 10 cents, children under 12, 5 cents. The contest is given under the auspices of the Epworth League and Christian Endeavor Society.

Personal

Miss Kate Toner, who has charge of 4th academic, will appreciate it if you will notify her when you are going away, when you are going or when you are entertaining.

Miss Hester Patrick, who is attending E. K. N. S. at Richmond, was at home several days the past week.

Miss Elizabeth Dorsett will return to Eastern State Normal at Richmond next week, after spending a week with her parents here.

Miss Ellen Rankin has returned home from Richmond Normal School where she has just completed a ten weeks' course.

William Bowen was a business visitor to Lexington Tuesday.

Mrs. Rosson Collins was in Lexington Tuesday.

Mr. Henry Mattox, of Middletown, was here a few hours last Saturday.

Miss Lucile Bowen is visiting in Lexington.

Messrs. Henry Reed and C. M. Lusby, were here on the Federal jury at Lexington this week.

Mr. Dan Asbury was in Paris Monday.

Mrs. Josephine Rankin and Miss Elizabeth Trapp left Monday to enjoy positions with the Home Telephone Company in Lexington.

Miss Lorraine O'Neil, of Paris, visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. A. B. Campbell was in Paris Monday.

Miss Mary Neal, of Mt. Olivet, was the guest of Mrs. Vina Crockett the past week.

Mr. J. Hart, formerly of Paris-ville, ky., was here Saturday. Mr. Hart has accepted a position with the Home Telephone Company in Lexington.

Miss Lorraine O'Neil, of Paris, visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. A. B. Campbell was in Paris Monday.

Miss Mary Neal, of Mt. Olivet, was the guest of Mrs. Vina Crockett the past week.

Mr. J. Hart, formerly of Parisville, ky., was here Saturday. Mr. Hart has accepted a position with the Home Telephone Company in Lexington and will soon locate in Lexington.

Mrs. Horace O. Neal attended the funeral of Major Otis S. Towner, at Lexington Monday.

Misses Jo Henry and Lizette Henry, of Hamilton College, Lexington, were guests of home several days the past week.

Mrs. Bessie Norton, of Lexington, was the guest of relatives here the past week.

Miss Jessica Spencer, of Hamilton College, Lexington, visited the week end with Miss Ann Spencer the past week.

Misses Ava Yates, Helen Talbott, Callie Stroud, Bessie and Emma Fisher and Laura Lusby left Monday for Richmond to enter Eastern Normal. Misses Norton.

Mrs. Henry Stewart was able to come home from the Kendall Hospital last week to gather sting fine.

Mr. Quincy Ashbrook and family moved to their new home in Lexington Tuesday. We will be pleasantly chatted by the High street family. Wonderful Paris.

Mrs. John Collins is quite ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norton.

Mr. D. F. Caywood went to Louisville Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Taylor have returned from a visit to Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Yates returned this week from a two months' stay in Florida.

Mrs. Chas. Smith, of Lexington, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Campbell.

Mrs. J. D. Fretwell and Mrs. J. E. Cantrell, of Cynthiana, attended the funeral of Mr. Samuel Bonar at Winchester Sunday.

Mr. Lockland has returned from a visit to relatives at Harrodsburg.

Mr. C. C. Cole visited his brother, Mr. Henry Cole, in Jamestown, Ohio, last week.

Mr. Harry Burgess and mother, Mrs. J. Burgess, were visitors to Lexington Sunday.

Mr. J. Reed and family and Wilson Harper attended the automobile show in Lexington Saturday.

Miss Laurie King returned last week from several weeks' visit in Cincinnati.

Mr. T. P. Haight, of Stanford, is the guest of his uncle, Dr. S. H. McKee this week.

Mrs. Laura Dalzell and son Otis, are expected to return from Florida this week. Mrs. Dalzelle has been quite ill recently, but was somewhat improved in her reports.

Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Brandstett and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Nash attended the automobile show at Lexington last week. Mr. Brandstett says it was a great show and has Louisville's magnet beat. Mr. Brandstett bought both a new Model 75 Overland.

The Mothers' Club will meet with Mrs. Jesse Hamm this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Miss Evelyn Estes entertained charmingly Saturday afternoon with cards on Locust street, Saturday afternoon from four hour guests, Mrs. Dan Lee, of Knoxville, Tennessee. The home was beautifully decorated with Ward scene and Spring flowers. Luncheon was served to about thirty guests.

BIRTH.

Sims—To Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sims, of April 3, a son—Maurice Allen.

Stocker—To Mr. and Mrs. McPherson Stocker, on March 27th, a son—Slater Forrest, Bradley.

RELIGIOUS.

Services at the Baptist church next Sunday morning.

Rev. C. H. Council will preach at the Jackstown church Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Father L. S. Wangermeir, of Lexington, will deliver the Lenten sermon at St. John's Catholic church Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Epworth League of the Carlisle Christian church has elected John a contest over the Bible class of the Carlisle Christian church. Sunday was the first day of the contest and it resulted in favor of attendance and Carlisle 57.

At the next Sunday evening at 7:45, at the Methodist church, the Epworth League will hold an open session. There will be a varied program of musical and vocal music and speaking by the Leaguers. The principal speaker of the evening will be Mr. Ben Bishop, of Paris, the current president of the Paris Union League. Every body is invited and there will also be address on "Young People's Work in the Church." Every body is cordially invited.

MARRIAGES.

The marriage of Miss Abagail Redmon, of Harbor Springs, Michigan, and Mr. W. Perry Riffell, of Carlisle, occurred at Harbor Springs, Michigan, on Tuesday, April 18th.

DEATHS.

Kennedy.—Mrs. Caroline Kennedy, aged 75, died at her home on Cleveland street, Saturday afternoon, after an illness of several months. The funeral services were conducted from the Methodist church Monday morning by Rev. J. H. A. Voegtli. Interment was in the Carlisle cemetery. Mrs. Kennedy was formerly Mrs. Caroline Sinker, and was a granddaughter of Mrs. Jeremiah Mors. She was a woman of many excellent traits of heart and of the Methodist church and her life was such as to prove an inspiration to those who knew her.

James W. Norton spanked at a Lexington hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. John N. Ross has retired the Methodist's crossings on Locust street.

Mr. Allen Arnold is quite ill with pneumonia at the Kendall Hospital.

Another shipment of neckwear received this week at Sam K. Veach's. Everything you want is here.

C. H. Fisher bought a Hupp, five passenger touring car from the Main Garage Saturday.

Harry Nolan has resumed his duties as rural mail carrier after an enforced rest of several weeks.

James P. King and Teddy Minihan, of Mt. Sterling, have purchased the Local Cafe in Lexington.

Sam Veach says he's done something special for you Saturday and Court Day. Invite on him.

A saleshed conference is on now. When you want groceries, try our Carlisle one. J. P. TUNE & CO.

Fiscal Court convenes again today to allow claims. Next Wednesday they will meet to settle with the Treasurer.

If you are looking for low prices we can relieve you, also give you style that is correct.

MRS. H. T. MANN.

Before buying a buggy see us. We bought when the price was low and can give you the benefit.

HARRY KING.

On page four of this paper you will find the opening episode of "Our Girl and the Game," that thrilling, thrilling, clean serial, which starts at the Lyric Friday night.

A new grocery has been started in the East end by M. R. Hurley. They buy for cash and sell for cash and you get the benefit in lower prices. Try them. Left phone 282.

We are showing the New American Quick-step just what you want.

You can't afford to buy your seeds without Fertilizer.

F. B. HENRY.

DO YOU WISH TO BE SHOWN? If so, see Isaks & Sutter and they will show you where you are losing money every day in the year by buying your garments of making payments on some of the expensive farm values they have for sale.

While our stock lasts we offer strictly pure, guaranteed, fresh mixed paint at $1.00 per gallon. Sherwin-Williams Co. 1 Inner Perfection Oil Stove, $16.75. All No. 9, 4 foot flame, per set, $6.

HARRY KING.

Linville Some Better

Guy Linville, who shot and killed his wife and then shot himself through the stomach last Tuesday night, is reported by his physician to be resting as well as could be expected. Each day he lives the chances of his recovery become that much more hopeful.

Horses Wanted.

I will be in the market on Court Day in Carlisle to purchase a car load of General Purpose Horses. Don't forget the date.

H. N. RANKIN, Agent

To Our Carlisle And Nicholas County Friends

You know it has always been our aim to show the newest up-to-date Men's, Young Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishings for less money. Because that we are able to show the latest and lowest line of clothes it has ever been our privilege to place before you.

Our Mr. Goerte Ramons will be in our store and will be glad to show you the new styles and quote you the lowest prices. He is always glad to call on you and will be glad to call on you at the price you would have paid in the Spring of 1915.

We especially invite the Mothers to call and see the line of Children's Clothing that we will display.

We will also bring samples of our new Spring Hats and Caps.

Trusting to be favored with a call, we are,

Cordially yours,

D. HECHINGER & COMPANY

BIG STOCK SALE AT THE PEOPLES' WAREHOUSE

Monday, April 10, at 1 o'clock

I will sell at the above time and place, to the highest bidder, the following live-stock:

25 Best Black Polled Angus Heifers
30 Black Polled Steer Calves
6 Extra Good Polled Angus Bulls
1 Extra Good Hereford Bull
15 Extra Good Black Feeders-900 lb.
2 Extra Good Holstein bulls, ready for service.
Some good Holstein heifers
Some fine Shorthorn heifers and bull calves.

This is the chance of a life-time, and you can't afford to miss it. It will be the biggest Combination Sale ever held in Carlisle.

H. N. Rankin Agent.

Men's Shoes for work or dress to suit Sam Veach's hobby.

I want you to compare my prices, quality and style with other hats, cheaply priced, before you buy.

MRS. H. T. MANN.

Fertilizer not only hastens the growth of your plants, but prevents the ravages of insects.

F. B. HENRY.

Don't forget the episode of "The Girl and The Game," which appears on page two of this issue, will be shown at the Lyric in moving pictures Friday night. Read the episode, then see it on the screen.

At Neal-Buckley's sale held last Thursday at the Peoples Warehouse, 30 mules sold from $50 to $95; two horses $40 to $45, and milk cows from $35 to $65.

A lady writes E. C. King "I used the latest Sweet Home Coupe, bought of you last year. I like them and expect to get another dozen soon."

OUR LIST contains all lands for sale that are worth having, with the exception of a very few farms, which we will soon have. We consider it our duty to have for YOU just what YOU want. ZIEGLER & NORTON.

In Our Repair Shop

Nothing in Your Auto Botched or Spoiled.

ONLY SKILLED, EXPERIENCED WORKMEN EMPLOYED
We Think Too Much of Our Reputation to Risk It.

When Your Auto Needs Repairs or Overhauling Bring It To Us or LET US SEND FOR IT
MAIN STREET GARAGE.

Cookies For the Little Ones

Our pies and cakes are wholesome. THEY CAN BE FED TO THE YOUNGSTER.

Doctors today RECOMMEND SWEETS FOR THE CHILDREN.

When you make up your mind to buy bread, cakes, pies or anything in the baker's line give us a call. WE GUARANTEE YOU'LL BE SATISFIED.

WAGNER'S BAKERY.

FISCAL COURT.

The Fiscal Court spent most of the day listening to complaints from farmers of different sections of the county, as to the poor lines for constructing the turnpikes. Bids from Phelps, Hall, Ware Co. and Chandler & Son for the building of six miles of the Leesburg-Sharpsburg Pike were received. A ruling was made that neighbors are to contribute 50 perhaps and are not to take other employment from contractors. Jas. Hizaine, was appointed Road Supervisor. The Clark Motor Construction Company was allowed $1,000.00. Fiscal Court adjourned Friday, Forty Attorney, for work on Sharpsburg Pike, Section.

"FLAG DAY" SATURDAY.

Saturday will be national "Flag Day." The fair belief of Lafayette, who gave such strong assistance to the Colonies in their fight for freedom, is to be honored by the Camp Fire Girls. Every girl is to observe the day in such a way that will be said, as this is the most appropriate time to present the real flag for a desirable Flag Day.

It is hoped that every one will buy a flag, as a part every month should be saved to buy one. Parents could be easier to you and a flag for the home.

DON'T FORGET WHERE TO BUY your shoes, your home is not located. Sam Veach's shoes are the best. Sam Veach's shoes are the best. Sam Veach's shoes are the best. Sam Veach's shoes are the best.

1882 SAM K. VEACH 1916

Your New Suit

JUST what do you expect to buy when you purchase your new suit for Spring and Summer?

Do you expect shapely garments, modeled and moulded by conscientious craftsmen? Do you expect fetching fabrics, branded bat by the makers? Do you expect talented tailoring, the kind produced only by expert operatives, working under ideal conditions?

If you do, our clothes are what you want.

They fulfill every requirement, even as to price, and SATURDAY and COURT DAY we will show especially strong lines at $15 to $20

1882 SAM K. VEACH 1916
Quality First. Style Too.

MISS ELLEN HARDIN
HATS
ALWAYS SHOWING LATEST MODELS FROM LEADING MODISTES TOGETHER WITH MY OWN ORIGINAL CREATIONS
YOUR INSPECTION INVITED

Save Money-?

OF COURSE YOU WANT TO SAVE ALL YOU CAN

Then try the New Merchant, before making your purchase.

Greatest Bargains Ever Shown in Carlisle, in following lines:

CLOTHING FOR MEN, YOUNG MEN AND BOYS
SHOES
FOR ALL THE FAMILY
Great Bargains in Watches

I am not putting on a Closing Out Sale, nor selling goods at Cost, but I can give you some REAL BARGAINS always. COME SEE FOR YOURSELF

JOS. GORDON
CARLISLE'S NEW MERCHANT
Kimbrough Hotel Building

THE CARLISLE MERCURY.

ESTABLISHED 1867--OLDEST NEWSPAPER IN NICHOLAS COUNTY

VOL. 47 CARLISLE, NICHOLAS COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1916 PAGES--NO 15

Get Ready For Clean-Up Days, April 19th and 20th

Bits of Byplay

By Luke McLuke

Copyright, 1915, the Cincinnati Enquirer

Fact.
The hill dollars' blood is worth
Much more than common stuff;
You'll find him found most every week
Where folks are playing bluff.

Hah!
"You never hear of a pedestrian
Inclined to be aeroplane," mused the hen.

Well, what then?
"Nothing," answered the hoot. "Only you have to admit that the aeroplane runs over more people than the auto mobile."

Correct.
"Those Eskimos in whose warm presence Peary found himself," said the fair one, "were they not the people who made the finest modern dresses?"

The Family.
"I see that the Smiths have been advertised," remarked Jimson.
"That's all right," replied Brown. "They don't mind it. The vote of the court on plaintiff's motion for a change of venue was unanimous. At every session of court, Monday evening, conducted by the Rev. C. B. Boatland at the Christian Church, who will be assisted by the other Ministers of the city. Christian or otherwise, denominations are cordially invited to this prayer meeting, and all the other services.

Sad.
He ate a mint,
And now sits moaning
Because he's groaning
With the stomach ache.

The Day Must Be Passed.
By EDWARD.

Between Sept. 30 and Oct. 2 a party entered my hunting shed and stole my favorite rifle. The above reward I will give for the return of the rifle and party, delivered to me at my home, or the party delivered to the sheriff before next Sat. 12 o'clock noon.

P. S.—Please bring a rope.—New Yorker.

Hughes.
If now you will kindly straighten
Out the tangle you have made
Of the Hughes and Roosevelt
Platforms, we will be obliged.
—Chicago Herald.

Few Knows Everything.
Willie Paw, in other words office of Solicitor?
Paw—Limitless, my son. Echo answers "Yes" to that question.
Mam—Willie, you go and speak to your lessons.

Happy Eden.
Eden Editor another man a prize
Eden Editor another man a prize
Eden Editor another man a prize
Why Eden's home resembles Kenmore
—Atlanta Constitution.

Old Eden's garden was a place
Where Eve and Adam lived in peace
But Eden's garden now resembles
Some place where Eden Editor dwells
—Atlanta Constitution.

Roll Him In.
Dear Luke: If we can't raise that $1 per x 40 rd. road in Floyd county, we'll have to roll it.—Floyd County Correspondent.

Well!
A woman was kicked on the chin by a mule, causing her to bite off the end of her tongue, and her husband at the end times drove refused an offer of $1,000 for the mule.—Rushville (Ind.) News-Democrat.

Another Short One.
Chapter II—Ride.
Chapter III—Died.—A. E. Mohn.

Names Is Names.
C. A. Cuthbert lives at Portsmouth, O.

Our Daily Special.
An apostle is not a specialist.

Luke McLuke Says:
The high cost of living didn't worry the people much in the old days when the tithable was reckoned as part of one's property.

It must require a volunteer to have his other people sort of his night over night.

Give an old fashioned housekeeper the choice between a earthquake and a rainy weekday, and she will take the earthquake any old time.

If there is one man that the office holder never seems to forget it is the one who minds his own business and tries to earn an honest living for his family.

Give a woman all the feathers she wants in this world, and she will have a chance on getting wings in the next.

There was a time when a wife put the kibosh of her time trying to retain her husband's affection. But nowadays she puts in most of her time trying to keep her trying to retain her affection.

Keep your mouth shut when the other fellow is telling all he knows and you probably will not get an axe with the somebody that he can't tell all you know.

If marriage doesn't make a man wise there is no telling what will.

Ever notice that when you get up and give your seat for a lady that's what is escorted by her fellow she always says "Thank you," in a supreme second and then immediately for her fellow to say "Thank you" before he write you do a "you're welcome?"

What has become of the old fashion measuring for new hats by how far when he spoke to a man?

REVIVAL TO BEGIN AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. J. C. Hunt, Of Covington, Will Come Monday To Begin The Meeting in Carlisle.

The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church begins Sunday, April 16. The services each day will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. F. D. Thomas, and the members of the congregation are requested to be present at these opening services.

The Rev. J. C. Hunt, of Covington, will arrive Monday and take charge of the meeting. Services will be held twice each day, at 10 o'clock and 7:30 o'clock, each time opened by a song service with Mr. Ramsey in charge of the accompaniment. At every service there will be a special part work.

The following have been secured to assist in the singing: Mrs. N. B. McKenney, F. D. Thomas and Mrs. Arthur Fairleigh. Conductors: Arthur Fairleigh, Walter Lusby and Elmer Lucas. Stoney Ushers: Elmer Lucas, Walter White Chinn, Robert L. Lemon, Jr., Lemuel Lee, Jr., Lester Flat Creek, Jim Spencer to Harry Conely line, Jim Spencer to Harry Conely line, Jim Spencer to Harry Conely line