TONIGHT--WEDNESDAY

A big Western drama, featuring Bill Hart, farewell in "The Law." Don't fail to see this picture.

THURSDAY--Paramount, featuring Mary Murray in a picturization of Mary Johnson's "To Have and To Hold," with Wallace Reid supporting.

FRIDAY--"The Iron Claw" (serial comedy).

SATURDAY--Comic Day! Biggest in comedy. "The Mix-Up," a chuckle-you-to-death comedy-drama.

Next week--Comes Dustin Farnum in the western treat "Jim Bludso." Also two Western drama each evening.

TUESDAY - WEDNESDAY. We will present Robert Edeson in a Vitagraph multi-reel drama, "For a Woman's Honor." If you want to see Mr. Edeson at his best see him next Tuesday. Listen, friends, we are the Lyric. There is no reason why we can not give a picture that is suggestive however, if you think others will act. A picture that children can't see is rotten, and that of others don't see it is rotten in seeing at all. We don't think Lyric's suggestive pictures are rotten morals. We are for good, clean pictures only. We are the Lyric.

LYRIC THEATRE

NOTICE!

The receiving two copies of The Mercury will do us a favor by letting us know it at once, so that we may keep our mailing list correct.

To Our Subscribers.

Those who use the Nicholas Advocate or The Carlisle Mercury on subscription are requested to call at The Mercury office and settle, at their earliest convenience. In taking over the two papers, The Carlisle Mercury Company purchased the subscription lists of both papers and all money due for subscriptions to same should be collected by the new company.

Watch the date on your paper. The date number stands for the month, the last number for the year your subscription expires. For instance "John Jones, 3-17" appearing on the margin of your paper would mean that your subscription expired in March, 1917. The price of paper has doubled in the past year and we earnestly request you to be prompt in paying subscriptions when due.
