omar· aroma· omaromar

Omar omar is a double word.
It spells Omar twice. It spells aroma, too.
That aroma belongs to Omar because it's aroma that's rich and quite exceptional—a triumph of blending—the art of cigarette making.
Omar—the perfect Turkish blend.
Even the words blend.

MOOREFIELD

Mrs. O. D. Hamilton and Mrs. A. H. Durham of Myers spent Sunday with Mrs. Eva Durham. Mrs. Hamilton remained for a two weeks' visit here and with her sister, Mrs. Arra Smith at Bethel.

The Thanksgiving service in the Union church, conducted by Revs. C. M. Hemphrey and Richard Caldwell, was a most excellent service and the few present felt they were well repaid by leaving home duties to serve God in His house. If the Christian people of this county could only realize the importance of observing this national proclamation their influence for righteousness would impress winners greatly.

Mrs. Elina Shockley returned December 1st. after a two months' visit in Fleming and Mason counties with relatives and friends. She is in excellent health for a woman of her age. She is in her eighty-fourth year, and her eyesight, hearing and memory is almost perfect.

Charley Calahan of Ewing called Friday to see his old neighbor and friend Mrs. Durham and Mrs. Shockley.

Rice Gaither spent Thanksgiving at home. He has a good position in Cleveland, Ohio and has been at it almost a year.

Mrs. J. B. Durham and her mother Mrs. Gregory, spent Thanksgiving with her grandmother in Mt. Sterling.

The Thanksgiving program rendered Wednesday afternoon by the first six grades of our school was excellent and very much enjoyed by parents and friends. We called on four to our school days which always brings pleasant memories.

Miss Lida Belle McCray of Clark county spent Thanksgiving with her mother and brothers.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rigg on November 28, a daughter; weight, 8 pounds. Mother and baby getting along nicely.

Walter Clarkenbaril of Lexington visited his sister, Mrs. Harve Wilson last Wednesday.

Jim Gaitnge has had the Twin Lights put in his residence. Jim is right bright in more ways than one but at a cost of $75. Ed. Kennedy has his modern bargain lighted, but it cost of $300.

Miss Edna Irvin, Mrs. Hobert Anderson, Mrs. Charley Ewell of Carlisle, and Prof. Robbins motored to Gramley Lick Saturday and ate turkey with Prof's home folk.

Dr. Swango and wife, Mr. Mc. Cole Templeman and wife motored to Reynolds ville Thanksgiving and dined with Mrs. Swango's sister, Mrs. Tom Rhyne.

Miss Anna McWorthy has Miss Matt of Shawhan and Miss Ethel of Miss Anna entertained for her guest Thursday evening.

Robert Bloomt and wife of Ewing ton are here for a few days' visit with his father's family and the Bloomt neighbors, also sister, Mrs. Powell Berry.

BARTERVILLE

A beautiful baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ritchie on November 29th. A number of her friends called to see it on the evening with well filled baskets and spent a happy evening with the young woman. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wagoner and baby, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Station and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charlton McFarland, Miss Ethel Fowler, Mrs. M. J. Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snapp, Mrs. T. Asbury, Mrs. W. E. Ritchie and daughter Naomi, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Mattox, Mrs. Martha Wagoner, Mrs. S. J. Ritchie and Eva Ritchie. After each had partaken of the sumptuous dinner they had a meeting conducted by Rev. V. F. Fryman, after which they returned home each one saying that he spent a happy day.

Threaten To Burn Sherburne Bridge

Somebody has been writing anonymous letters to parties in Sherburne threatening to burn or destroy Sherburne bridge unless it is made a free bridge, and it is reported that one night recently a party of seven men on horseback visited the home of a well known citizen of Sherburne to serve personal notice upon him that the bridge would be destroyed if their demands were not granted. The county of Fleming owns 51 per cent. of the stock of Sherburne Bridge Co., while the other 49 per cent. is owned by individuals here and in Sherburne vicinity. It is to be hoped that the valuable bridge may be preserved and that those who have been guilty of writing those letters and making those threats may be caught and properly dealt with by law.—Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

Explosion Of Dynamite Cap Causes Loss Of 3 Fingers

Elmer Hopkins, aged 20 years, son of Jack Hopkins, who resides on the Maysville & Lexington turnpike, lost his thumb and two fingers on his left hand as the result of the explosion of a dynamite cap he had in his hand. He was at the rock quarry of Chandler & Son, near the intersection of the Headquarters and Maysville & Lexington turnpikes on last Wednesday, and noticing a dynamite cap on the ground picked it up and began fooling with it. In his desire to see the contents of the little brass shell he began to remove the high explosive with a nail and presently the explosion took place with the above result.

Suing For $15,000

Alleging in a petition for divorce that his wife's family had alienated her affections and induced her to remain with them, I. H. Stagg, of Carlisle, has filed suit in the Clark Circuit Court for $15,000 against Mr. and Mrs. James H. Ward, of Wade's Mill precinct.

The parties were married in Bourbon county in August, 1911, and went to Alberta, Canada, where they resided two years, returning to Kentucky. It was while here that Stagg's parents-in-law as alleged, induced Mrs. Stagg to remain with them instead of returning to their Canadian home. They have one child.

COUNTY SCHOOL NEWS

The next Teachers Meeting will not be until the third Saturday in December as it is uncertain about the State Draft getting in in time to pay teachers second Saturday. Only four teachers absent from last meeting one was ill, one attended a funeral, one failed to get a way to come to town, the other absentee we did not hear the cause.

As this will be the last meeting before the holidays we hope every teacher will try to be present.

The discussions on the Reading Circle work were interesting. The first three chapters of Leiper's Language were discussed and not a teacher called on by the Superintendent refused to respond and all gave very interesting and helpful suggestions as to the benefits derived from its use in the class. The next three chapters will be discussed at next meeting.

Every teacher had read the Course of Study which will be due examination time.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday were spent in the office. Needed to the County Board of Education met and passed on quite a batch of business. At the last meeting the Board decided not to close school Friday after Thanksgiving and we published same in Retired News, but at the request of the County Superintendent they reconsidered the matter and when the vote was more than made up by the extremely high prices paid for the common and medium grades and the impact on the whole, it was a most satisfactory satisfaction than at any recent meeting.

The [illegible] of fancy tobacco offered yesterday was very small, the offerings consisting chiefly of some medium goods, running largely to the bright sides. Smokers predominated and damaged were very little in evidence. Breakers predominated during the day, there being but little of the good red fillers."

Deavers' Trial Results In A Hung Jury

The case of Leo Deavers, charged with the killing of Henry G. Clay, of the Beaver house on the Jacksetown pike, near Flemingsburg two years ago, and which was called for trial in Court on Monday, was resumed in the session of Court on Tuesday morning when, after the jury had been empaneled the taking of testimony was begun.

Chief of Police Fred A. Conner, Rudolph Davis, Deputy Sheriff Ollie Marshall, Dr. W. C. Casey and others were called and examined in the indictment being an Educational Association and to see that girls were in session. Next week I will give something regarding the work of the Association but time forbids now.

I will be in the office each day next week, but will be here Saturday and Court Day. I want to see every one of the schools before Christmas.

The pie supper held at the school was a success in every way. At an early hour the schoolroom was filled to the seating and standing capacity. Clarence Lellas Buys Handy Farm.

(Cynthiana Democrat.)

Yesterday morning John M. Cromwell, executor of the will of Mrs. Mary W. Handy, dec'd., sold publicly on the steps of the court house door to the highest and best bidder, Clarence Lellas, the sale being conducted by Auctioneer Ed. King's Son. The property sold consisted of the residence, and the farm of 84 acres, a large colonial mansion, barns, stables, etc., and has been in the Handy family for many years. For the past twenty-five years, Mr. Handy has been a resident of Paris, at $170.25 per acre. The price is considered a good one. Mr. T. W. NEW EPIDEMIC SPREADING FAST

Nothing to Fear, Though, as It Makes Folks Laugh.

MANY ARE NOW INOCULATED

H. H. Towson, Salesman, Describes How He Caught the Popular "Tanlac Germ" and Relates Suffering He Endured Before He Discovered New Method of Relief.

It's here.

Have you caught it yet?

Don't be surprised nowadays everywhere you see it. Its taking, it's catching. It's what has been called "The epidemic that makes folks laugh."

Everybody is catching it. Every teacher had read the Course of Study which will be due examination time.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday were spent in the office. Needed to the County Board of Education met and passed on quite a batch of business. H. H. Towson, Salesman, Who Tells How He Got the Popular New "Tanlac Smile."

Towson said, "But I must say that the results I got from taking Tanlac have surprised everybody.

"For two years I suffered. I had a pain like heart-burn almost, continual ly, and my throat would get hot as fire. I had to be mighty careful what I ate, I can tell you. Solid foods would cause pains, and the forming of gas would make me feel as if I had a fever and chills.

"To top all that I had headaches. I was a miserable mess of the time.

Heard of Many Helped.

"Well, one day I read every about, newspaper after newspaper in town after town had statements of how Tanlac had helped so many different people that I decided to try it myself. At my home in Carlisle in Cleveland, 164 ll here! I'll say it helped me.

"I can eat anything I want and not suffer the slightest from the pains and gas. I've gained 15 pounds in weight, and have the fine of all colors of satisfying my appetite. And I'm in fine spirits—why, I feel like I could go in the air quickly—now it doesn't matter much I am no judge for I think [illegible] And the bonfire—they are the pride.

"Yes," concluded Mr. Towson, "I am glad to say that Nickel Syrup is a great medicine."

Tom Hendricks, of Pennsylvania, doted humorist and lecturer, appeared at the court house Saturday evening, to a very amusing entertainment. Mr. Hendricks came as substitute for the first number on the Lyceum Course and so delightful was he that if he is a substitute they can be just send as far as we are concerned a substitute next Tuesday in place of the regular. His lecture was on "Successful People" and he made you laugh and he made you think. His funny stories only bored a material increase. The bright type which sold from $21 to $29 a hundred pounds showed very little change from the prices paid last year. Red tobacco also showed an increase.

The one disappointment of the day was the top grades of color and/or tobacco that is classed as fancy selling at prices that were not quite so high as expected. Buyers generally considered the matter and when the vote was more than made up by the extremely high prices paid for the common and medium grades and the impact on the whole, it was a most satisfactory satisfaction than at any recent meeting.

The [illegible] of fancy tobacco offered yesterday was very small, the offerings consisting chiefly of some medium goods, running largely to the bright sides. Smokers predominated and damaged were very little in evidence. Breakers predominated during the day, there being but little of the good red fillers."

Deavers' Trial Results In A Hung Jury

The case of Leo Deavers, charged with the killing of Henry G. Clay, of the Beaver house on the Jacksetown pike, near Flemingsburg two years ago, and which was called for trial in Court on Monday, was resumed in the session of Court on Tuesday morning when, after the jury had been empaneled the taking of testimony was begun.

Chief of Police Fred A. Conner, Rudolph Davis, Deputy Sheriff Ollie Marshall, Dr. W. C. Casey and others were called and examined in the indictment being an Educational Association and to see that girls were in session. Next week I will give something regarding the work of the Association but time forbids now.

I will not be in the office each day next week, but will be here Saturday and Court Day. I want to see every one of the schools before Christmas.

The pie supper held at the school was a success in every way. At an early hour the schoolroom was filled to the seating and standing capacity. The program began at six sharp, the audience was entertained for more than an hour and a half but did not tire out quickly—now it doesn't matter much I am no judge for I think [illegible] And the bonfire—they are the pride.

"Yes," concluded Mr. Towson, "I am glad to say that Nickel Syrup is a great medicine."

$16.38 IS THE AVERAGE OPENING DAY AT LEXINGTON.

With the sales blocked at 1,090,000 pounds, 21,276 pounds of tobacco had been sold at Lexington Friday, when the opening sale of the season came to a close.

The average price was $16.38 per hundred. Last year's 7,500,000 pounds were sold on opening day and the average was $16.38.

Between 600,000 and 700,000 pounds were on the market. The crowd that attended was the largest that has ever attended the opening sale in Lexington.

The Lexington Herald says of the sale:

"Prices on all grades were much better than those which prevailed last year, with but a few exceptions. The common types in some cases almost doubled in price while that selling under $14 a hundred pounds showed a material increase. The bright type which sold from $21 to $29 a hundred pounds showed very little change from the prices paid last year. Red tobacco also showed an increase.

The one disappointment of the day was the top grades of color and/or tobacco that is classed as fancy selling at prices that were not quite so high as expected.
