BE ENERGETIC NOT LANGUID

Medical Authority Tells What the Condition Really Means

"When you are languid and listless, or lack ambition and feel weary, worth the thing is to absolutely recover, that you take treatment to correct, there will naturally condition, because you are suffering from the general weakness of the system, and the system is suffering from the general weakness of the system, and the system is suffering from the general weakness of the system."

"This 'read feeling' means a real deal more than it generally means. It is not, however, in a physical sense, that needs to be corrected, but it is in a mental sense, that needs to be corrected. It is in a mental sense, that needs to be corrected. It is in a mental sense, that needs to be corrected."
