KY. SOLDIERS ARE PARDONED

BY GOVERNOR STANLEY SO THAT THEY CAN JOIN THEIR TROOPE.

EMINENCE CAPTAIN ELECTED

Field Hospital and Ambulance Corps Arrive at Fort Thomas Camp.

(Special Frankfort Correspondence.)

Frankfort, Ky.—Gov. Stanley pardoned two members of Company C, Louisville, who would have been left at home but for his clemency. They are James Clark, of Lexington, fined and sentenced on a charge of breach of peace, and Ambrose King, of Clark county, charged with boozefighting. Adjt. Gen. Ellis announced that Lieut. Walter Gallion, of the regular army had been elected captain of the Enmence company.

The Field Hospital and Ambulance Corps, Fifed Regiment, have arrived at Ft. Thomas after receiving orders from the War Department to entrain. The general order for mobilization was slightly delayed and companies had recruited sufficient strength.

Camp Staff is Named.

Maj. J. T. Woodcock, of the commissary department, announced the appointment of his staff selected for the mobilization camp at Fort Thomas. They are: Maj. Jackson Mc-Vey, medical department; Major Frank B. Bennett, in charge of the camp; Captain W. C. Johnson and Lieutenant J. H. Terry, Jr., quartermaster, and Captain Logan Bush, who will attend to railroad transportation, wagons and supplies other than the subsistence department. Adjutant General Ellis made the following state memorandum:

"In view of the recent call of the President for the mobilization of the Kentucky National Guard, the accompanying order specifies that the companies shall be assembled at their respective stations and recruited to the minimum strength of 65 men there to be given to camp." Captain Allyn Gallion, U. S. A., formerly commissioned at the University of Kentucky, and who is now with the company on the Mexican border, has visited Adjutant General Ellis, making applicatfh for a place as colonel.
