Locals.

98 If you are going away or expect a visitor, or if anything is visiting you, or if anything happens, phone us.

Tonight--Thursday

A Paramount 5 act photoplay, "The Yankee Girl," With the celebrated music comedy star, Blanche Ring.

Friday--We will show the first episode of our serial "The Secret of the Submarine." This is one of the most up-to-date serials on the market, dealing with present conditions. There is a thrill in every episode, also "Going Up" featuring "Jerry."

Saturday--The Mutual Master Picture, "The Oval Diamond," a 5 part detective drama with Harris Gordon and Barbara Gilroy.

Monday -- Beautiful Hazel Dawn in the 5 act Paramount feature, "The Masquerader."

Tuesday--Frank Daniels in the most laughable comedy ever filmed, "Croaky" a 5 part Vitagraph feature.

LYRIC THEATRE

Wash Ties, Wash Ties, Wash Ties. DAVIS-DUDLEY CO.

Local dealers are offering $1.10 for wheat.

See Ross & Parker--Deposit Bank Building for Hail Insurance.

Christine Wilson and Louise Hall, were committed to the Asylum today, in county court last week.

FOR SALE--The J. L. Wilson residence on Sycamore.
C. U. BRAMBLETT

Trunks, Suit Cases and Traveling Bags for your vacation at Sam K. Veach's

FOR SALE -- Hupmobile runabout. May be seen at Carlisle Garage. ALBERT FERRARI

Misses Mary and Bessie Boyd are selling home altarine cheese, equal to their residence on East Main

For RENT--H. L. James cottage on Locust Street. Possession can be given at once. Apply to Mrs. W. J. Armstrong

Mrs Anna B. Wilson, state worker for the W. C. T. U. delivered an address at the Methodist Church Sunday evening.

Your account is due. Please call and pay same. Don't be annoyed.
Respectfully,
W. J. WISE.
Trust Funds Adv.

Protect your tobacco from Hail. Insure in the Pioneer company in this line--The Henry Clay.
Ross & Parker, Agents

At a meeting of the directors of the Farmers Loose Leaf Warehouse Association, held in the office of the company for the ensuing year, Frank C. Taylor was re-elected president, and Secretary. Joe Bill Keedon was elected assistant secretary.

Garfield Justice, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Justice, who has operated an air line Ford between Carlisle and Paris for the last Friday is getting along nicely and will be able to be carried to his home some time next week.

J. E. Sharpe, Jr., a prominent young farmer of Bourbon county, has been appointed by Bankers Sharpe, Smith, Bailey & Bailey, Bourbon News.

Mr. Lee Wornall went to Middletown Monday where he will have charge of some Confederate cemeteries.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henry, who has been in the Fayette County Court, Tuesday, Mr. Wm. D. McIntyre, of Millersburg, filed suit against the Deposit Bank of Carlisle, the principal defendant, and Wyborn McKee, referred to her as a widow, and alleged that her husband, Jas. Hutchison accompanied her to the bank and got the money.

Miss Anne Field went to Paris yesterday where she will spend a few days with her husband and three children.

Mrs. Fayette Rogers, Jr. Rudy and daughter, Miss Mary Rogers, left Tuesday morning for Newport, where they will visit Mr. Rogers' parents.

Judge Vanhook and lady attended Tuesday morning's session of the Bourbon county court in the history of Mrs.

Mrs. Mac Whitaker of Fayetteville, Tenn., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rumsey.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. King are spending the week in Mt. Sterling.

Personal

Miss Nate Tuner, who has charge of this column, is off appreciate it if you will notify, her when you have visitors, who you are going you or when you are entertaining.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hawes and little son, James Taylor Hawes, returned automobile trip through Central Kentucky last Friday.

Miss Lucy Howell of Huntington, W. Va., who has been visiting Mrs. Robert Parker at Jacksonville, left this week to visit friends in Frankfort.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Mann, their son, Hugh Taylor Mann, and their guests, Mrs. Hugh Turner and two daughters of Charleston, are spending a week or so at their country residence, Elmhurst.

Mrs. E. E. Bousfield has returned from a visit in Lawrenceburg.

Misses Cora and Khea Hollar of Jacksonville are visiting their uncle, Marcus L. Hollar, in this county.

Mrs. D. F. Given, of Charlotte, N. C., is visiting her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sam D. Dumont of near Headquarters. Mrs. Given and Miss Elnora Dumont have been guests of Mrs. Hugh Taylor last Saturday.

Miss Lucile Martin is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Martin, of Hoe Quarters.

Mrs. John Cowan and two children, Mary Louise and Elizabeth, of Chester, who have been visiting the family of D. D. Thompson, are now visiting relatives near Carlisle.

Mrs. Clay Broadbent left Tuesday for Mt. Sterling to visit Miss Georgia Scott and attend the Fair.

Mrs. Lula Gardner is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gardner and daughter in Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Stewart of Millersburg, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hawes.

Mrs. Mitchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, of Paris, are visiting relatives at Danville.

Misses Ada Latham of Cincinnati and Elizabeth Barkley of Flemingsburg are guests of Mrs. Martha Dudley.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Talbott left Monday for a trip to Washington, D. C., and other Eastern cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Mitchell and daughter, Miss Agnes, spent Sunday with Mr. Mitchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mitchell, of Millersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Taylor have returned from a visit to their son, Mr. Hubert Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fisher have returned from a visit to their son, Mr. Jas. Fisher, and family in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Henry Churchill of Covington is the guest of Mrs. Robert Parker.

Mrs. John Talbott and daughter are guests of friends in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Gardner and little son of Cincinnati are visiting Mrs. Gardner's mother, Mrs. Jos. Stone.

Mrs. John J. Stone is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lee Letton, in Millersburg.

Misses Jessie Tate, Dimmie and Lucile Hall are visiting friends and relatives for part of each week.

Mrs. Jas. Hall and daughter, Miss Ruth Hall, returned Sunday from a visit to Mrs. Hall's son, Mr. Ben Hall, and family in Lexington.

Mr. T. C. Taylor went to Danville Monday where he will visit his daughter, Mrs. Hattie Gentry, and family.

Mrs. Ben Hall and daughter, Miss Ruth, left Monday for Lexington where they will visit Mrs. Hall's son, Mr. Ben Hall, and family in Lexington.

Mr. Fred Hagemann of Cincinnati, O., was a guest of Mrs. Jas. Hall and family, who they had been out with Mr. Hagemann in his car.

Mrs. Jas. Hall and daughter, Miss Ruth, left Monday for Lexington where they will visit Mrs. Hall's son, Mr. Ben Hall, and family in Lexington