WILSON AND MARSHALL TO HEAD DEMOCRATS

The Two Standard Bearers Renominated By Acclamation—Opposed By a Lone Delegate

Large Demonstration When Name of Wilson Is Presented To Convention—Firm Americanism Plank Inserted In Platform—Administration Achievements Are Lauded Highly

Convention Hall, St. Louis, Mo.—Woodrow Wilson was renominated for president by the Democratic convention. The nomination was made by acclamation. Thomas Riley Marshall of Indiana was renominated for vice president by the same manner for vice president. The nomination of Wilson was not unanimous—quite—Robert Emmet Burke, of Illinois, voted "no" when Senator Hughes, of New Jersey, moved to nominate the president by acclamation. When Burke, who came to St. Louis for the express purpose of voting against Wilson, shouted out his "No!" Chairman James thundered—"I declare Woodrow Wilson the nominee of this convention by a vote of 1,092 to 1." Burke was hissed by the assemblage.
