

WARNING BILL IS TABLED IN HOUSE, PRESIDENT IPPELHO

McLennan Resolution Defeated by Vote of 276 to 142

CHEER PLAIN TO BACK CHECK

Representative and Co. president of the national association of electricians, J. J. Conroy, today expressed his disappointment that the House will not pass the McLennan resolution. Conroy said that the electricians' union had been working for some time to have the McLennan resolution passed.

The resolution, which would require the Federal Reserve Board to advise the public of the rate of interest on all loans made by the Federal Reserve banks, was introduced by Representative McLennan of Ohio.

Conroy said that the electricians' union had been working for some time to have the McLennan resolution passed. He said that the union had been successful in getting the resolution passed in the Senate, but that the House would not pass it.

The resolution would require the Federal Reserve Board to advise the public of the rate of interest on all loans made by the Federal Reserve banks. It would also require the board to advise the public of the rate of interest on all loans made by the Federal Reserve banks.
